

DESIGNATION OF SPECIFIC UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICES IN THE CANNED FOOD OR BOTTLED FOOD BUSINESS

December 25, 1961
Fair Trade Commission Notification No. 12

(Amendment: Fair Trade Commission Notification No. 60 of 1968)

In accordance with the provisions of Section 2(9) of the Act Concerning Prohibition of Private Monopolization and Maintenance of Fair Trade (Law No. 54 of 1947), Specific Unfair Trade Practices in the Canned Food or Bottled Food Business shall be designated as follows, and shall come into effect from February 1, 1962:

Specific Unfair Trade Practices in the Canned Food or Bottled Food Business

Representations, advertisements and other similar means, which mislead or may mislead customers, used by any person, who operates the business of manufacture or sales of canned foods and or bottled foods, for selling those foods with regard to the gross amount or amount of content, drained weight, manufacturing date or the kind of raw materials, mixed ratio or cooking method and other matters related to quality.

Recital

1. "Canned Foods" as used in this Notification shall mean the foods (every food and drink except for alcoholic beverages stipulated in the Liquor Tax Act (Law No. 6 of 1953) and pharmaceutical products and quasi-pharmaceutical products stipulated in the Medicine Act (Law No. 145 of 1960)) that are sealed in cans and sterilized by heating.
2. "Bottled Foods" as used in this Notification shall mean the foods that are sealed in bottles and sterilized by heating.
