(2) An engagement under Subsection (1) shall be on such terms and conditions as the Commission determines.

PART III. – REGULATED ENTITIES, REGULATED GOODS, REGULATED SERVICES AND REGULATORY CONTRACTS.

Division 1. – Regulated Entities, Regulated Goods and Regulated Services.

32. DECLARATION OF REGULATED ENTITIES, ETC.

(1) The Minister responsible for treasury matters may, by notice published in the National Gazette, declare an entity that supplies, or is capable of supplying, goods or services in a regulated industry, to be a regulated entity –

- (a) where that entity is a State owned entity – at any time when that entity is a State owned entity; or
- (b) where that entity was a State owned entity as at the date this section comes into operation but that entity ceases to be a State owned entity – at any time within the period of three months after that entity ceases to be a State owned entity; or
- (c) where that entity carries on business using assets transferred to it from an entity that was a State owned entity as at the date this section comes into operation – at any time within the period of three months after that transfer of those assets, with effect from the later of the date of publication of the notice in the National Gazette and the commencement date specified in the notice.

(2) Where the Minister makes a declaration under Subsection (1), he may, by the same notice or by a subsequent notice published in the National Gazette, declare any goods or services supplied or capable of being supplied by the regulated entity to be regulated goods or regulated services, as the case may be, with effect from the later of the date of publication in the National Gazette and the commencement date specified in the notice.

(3) A declaration made under Subsection (2) may identify the relevant goods or services by reference to the persons to whom they are supplied, the location in which they are supplied, the purpose for which they are supplied, the period over which they are supplied or such other factors as the Minister considers appropriate.

(4) The Minister may not vary or revoke a declaration made under Subsection (1) or Subsection (2).

(5) The Minister shall not exercise any power conferred under this section in a manner that is inconsistent with the requirements of a regulatory contract that is in effect, and any exercise of a power in a manner that is inconsistent with a regulatory contract that is in effect is of no effect to the extent of the inconsistency.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

33. DECLARATION BY COMMISSION.

- (1) The Commission may, by notice in the National Gazette, declare –
- (a) any entity that supplies or is capable of supplying goods or services in a regulated industry to be a regulated entity; or
 - (b) any goods or services supplied or capable of being supplied by a regulated entity to be regulated goods or regulated services, as the case may be,

with effect from the later of the date of publication of the notice in the National Gazette and the commencement date specified in the notice.

- (2) The Commission shall not make a declaration –
- (a) under Subsection (1)(a) unless it is satisfied that –
 - (i) the entity concerned has substantial degree of power in a market; and
 - (ii) the declaration is appropriate having regard to the Commission's objectives set out in Section 5; or
 - (b) under Subsection (1)(b) unless it is satisfied that –
 - (i) the goods or services concerned are supplied or are capable of being supplied by the regulated entity in a market in which the regulated entity concerned has a substantial degree of power in a market; and
 - (ii) the declaration is appropriate having regard to the Commission's objectives set out in Section 5.

(3) A declaration made under Subsection (1)(b) may identify the relevant goods or services by reference to the persons to whom they are supplied, the location in which they are supplied, the purpose for which they are supplied, the period over which they are supplied or such other factors as the Commission considers appropriate.

(4) The Commission may, by notice published in the National Gazette, with the consent of the regulated entity concerned, revoke, but not vary, part or all of a declaration made under Section 32(1) or (2) or under Subsection (1), with effect from the later of the date of publication of the National Gazette and the commencement date specified in the notice, and –

- (a) a revocation of a declaration made under Section 32(1) or Subsection (1)(a) shall terminate any regulatory contract applying to the regulated entity concerned at the time the revocation comes into effect; and
- (b) a revocation of part or all of a declaration made under Section 32(2) or Subsection (1)(b) shall vary any regulatory contract applying to the regulated entity concerned by deleting any reference to goods and services that cease to be regulated goods or services at the time the revocation comes into effect.

- (5) The Commission shall not revoke –
- (a) a declaration made under Section 32(1) or Subsection (1)(a) unless it is satisfied that –
 - (i) the entity concerned does not have a substantial degree of power in a market; or
 - (ii) the declaration is not appropriate having regard to the Commission's objectives set out in Section 5; or

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (b) a declaration made under Section 32(2) or Subsection (1)(b) unless it is satisfied that –
 - (i) the goods or services in relation to which declaration is to be revoked are not supplied or capable of being supplied by the regulated entity in a market in which the entity concerned has a substantial degree of power in a market; or
 - (ii) the declaration is not appropriate having regard to the Commission’s objectives set out in Section 5.

(6) The Commission shall not make a declaration under Subsection (1) or revoke a declaration under Subsection (4) unless –

- (a) it has given notice of its intention to make or revoke the declaration no later than four weeks prior to doing so to –
 - (i) the Minister;
 - (ii) the relevant entity; and
 - (iii) any other person that the Commission considers appropriate; and
- (b) it has given each of those persons a reasonable opportunity to make submissions in relation to that matter and has considered any submissions made.

(7) At least two weeks prior to its decision taking effect, the Commission shall give each of the persons referred to in Subsection (6) written notice of its decision together with written reasons.

(8) In this section, “market” means a market in the whole or any part of Papua New Guinea for goods or services as well as other goods or services that, as a matter of fact and commercial common sense, are substitutable for them, including imports.

Division 2. – Regulatory Contracts.

34. REGULATORY CONTRACTS ISSUED BY THE MINISTER.

(1) The Minister responsible for treasury matters may issue a regulatory contract in accordance with this section applying to an entity that he declares to be a regulated entity under Section 32(1) in relation to the supply of regulated goods and regulated services and related matters as specified in the regulatory contract, such power to be exercised by the Minister only once in relation to each regulated entity that he declares to be a regulated entity under Subsection 32(1).

- (2) A regulatory contract shall –
 - (a) have a term not exceeding ten years; and
 - (b) regulate prices for the supply of regulated goods and regulated services by the regulated entity over the term of the regulatory contract; and
 - (c) specify service standards the relevant regulated entity shall meet, together with payments which the relevant regulated entity shall make to customers and other persons (whether by way of rebate or otherwise), or price reductions which may be imposed, if the relevant regulated entity fails to meet those service standards; and

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (d) specify a process for the issue of a new regulatory contract to replace that regulatory contract on the expiry of its term (including the date by which the relevant regulated entity shall provide a draft of the new regulatory contract to the Commission and the date by which the Commission shall issue the new regulatory contract); and
- (e) specify pricing policies and principles that are to be adopted in any regulatory contract that is issued in replacement of that regulatory contract on the expiry of its term; and
- (f) deal with such other matters as this Act or an Act that declares an industry to be a regulated industry, or a regulation made under such an Act, requires be dealt with in a regulatory contract.

(3) A regulatory contract issued under Subsection (1) may regulate prices in any manner the Minister considers appropriate, including –

- (a) fixing a price or the rate of increase or decrease in a price; and
- (b) fixing a maximum price or maximum rate of increase or minimum rate of decrease in a maximum price; and
- (c) fixing an average price for regulated goods or regulated services or an average rate of increase or decrease in an average price; and
- (d) specifying pricing policies or principles; and
- (e) specifying an amount determined by reference to a general price index, the cost of production, rate of return on assets employed or any other specified factor; and
- (f) specifying an amount determined by reference to quantity, location, period or other specified factor relevant to the supply of regulated goods or regulated services; and
- (g) fixing a maximum revenue, or maximum rate of increase or minimum rate of decrease in maximum revenue, in relation to regulated goods or regulated services.

(4) In addition to the matters referred to in Subsection (2), a regulatory contract issued under Subsection (1) may also –

- (a) specify conditions relating to prices; and
- (b) provide that a calculation is to be performed, or a matter is to be determined, by the Commission in a manner specified by the regulatory contract; and
- (c) require the relevant regulated entity to provide information to the Commission, customers or other persons; and
- (d) specify restrictions or limitations on how the Commission or any other statutory authority may exercise powers conferred on it by this or any other Act in relation to the regulated entity concerned or other suppliers of regulated goods or services supplied or capable of being supplied by the regulated entity concerned; and
- (e) deal with such other matters as this Act or an Act that declares an industry to be a regulated industry, or a regulation made under such an Act, specifies or contemplates may be dealt with in a regulatory contract.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(5) The Minister shall not exercise any power conferred under this section in a manner that is inconsistent with the requirements of a regulatory contract that is in effect and any exercise of a power in a manner that is inconsistent with a regulatory contract that is in effect is of no effect to the extent of the inconsistency.

35. REGULATORY CONTRACTS ISSUED BY THE COMMISSION.

(1) Subject to Subsection (2) and Section 36, the Commission may issue a regulatory contract in accordance with this section applying to a regulated entity in relation to the supply of regulated goods and regulated services and related matters as specified in the regulatory contract.

(2) The Commission shall not issue a regulatory contract under Subsection (1) that applies to a regulated entity where the term of that regulatory contract coincides in whole or in part with the term of a regulatory contract issued under Section 34(1) that applies to that regulated entity.

(3) A regulatory contract shall –

- (a) have a term not exceeding 10 years; and
- (b) regulate prices for the supply of regulated goods and regulated services by the regulated entity over the term of the regulatory contract; and
- (c) specify service standards the relevant regulated entity shall meet, together with payments which the relevant regulated entity shall make to customers and other persons (whether by way of rebate or otherwise), or price reductions which may be imposed, if the relevant regulated entity fails to meet those service standards; and
- (d) specify a process for the issue of a new regulatory contract to replace that regulatory contract on the expiry of its term (including the date by which the relevant regulated entity shall provide a draft of the new regulatory contract to the Commission and the date by which the Commission shall issue the new regulatory contract); and
- (e) specify pricing policies and principles that are to be adopted in any regulatory contract that is issued in replacement of that regulatory contract on the expiry of its term; and
- (f) deal with such other matters as this Act or an Act that declares an industry to be a regulated industry, or a regulation made under such an Act, requires to be dealt with in a regulatory contract.

(4) A regulatory contract issued under Subsection (1) may regulate prices in any manner the Commission considers appropriate, including –

- (a) fixing a price or the rate of increase or decrease in a price; and
- (b) fixing a maximum price or maximum rate of increase or minimum rate of decrease in a maximum price; and
- (c) fixing an average price for regulated goods or regulated services or an average rate of increase or decrease in an average price; and
- (d) specifying pricing policies or principles; and
- (e) specifying an amount determined by reference to a general price index, the cost of production, rate of return on assets employed or any other specified factor; and

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (f) specifying an amount determined by reference to quantity, location, period or other specified factor relevant to the supply of regulated goods or regulated services; and
- (g) fixing a maximum revenue, or maximum rate of increase or minimum rate of decrease in maximum revenue, in relation to regulated goods or regulated services.

(5) In addition to the matters referred to in Subsection (3), a regulatory contract issued under Subsection (1) may also –

- (a) specify conditions relating to prices; and
- (b) provide that a calculation is to be performed, or a matter is to be determined, by the Commission in a matter specified by the regulatory contract; and
- (c) require the relevant regulated entity to provide information to the Commission, customers or other persons; and
- (d) specify restrictions or limitations on how the Commission or any other statutory authority may exercise powers conferred on it by this or any other Act in relation to the regulated entity concerned or other suppliers of regulated goods or services supplied or capable of being supplied by the regulated entity concerned; and
- (e) deal with such other matters as this Act or an Act that declares an industry to be a regulated industry, or a regulation made under such an Act, specifies or contemplates may be dealt with in a regulatory contract.

(6) In issuing a regulatory contract under Subsection (1), the Commission shall, in addition to having regard to its objectives specified in Section 5, have regard to –

- (a) the legitimate business interests of the regulated entity to which the regulatory contract applies (the “relevant regulated entity”); and
- (b) the legitimate interests of suppliers to, and customers of, the relevant regulated entity; and
- (c) the particular circumstances of the industries in which the relevant regulated entity operates for the purpose of making, producing and supplying the regulated goods and regulated services to which the regulatory contract relates; and
- (d) the nature and uses of the regulated goods and regulated services to which the regulatory contract relates; and
- (e) the costs of making, producing and supplying the regulated goods and regulated services to which the regulatory contract relates; and
- (f) the costs of complying with applicable laws and regulatory requirements; and
- (g) the return on assets required to sustain past and future investment in the industries in which the relevant regulated entity operates for the purpose of making, producing and supplying the regulated goods and regulated services to which the regulatory contract relates; and
- (h) any relevant international benchmarks for prices, costs and return on assets in comparable industries, taking into account the particular circumstances of Papua New Guinea; and

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (i) the financial implications of the regulatory contract for the relevant regulated entity and for the industries in which the relevant regulated entity operates for the purpose of making, producing and supplying the regulated goods and regulated services to which the regulatory contract relates; and
- (j) any factors specified by another Act or by regulation under this Act or any other Act; and
- (k) any other factors that the Commission considers relevant.

36. PROCESS FOR ISSUE OF REGULATORY CONTRACTS BY COMMISSION.

(1) Where the Commission proposes that a regulatory contract should apply to a regulated entity, the Commission shall, not more than two years and not less than nine months before issuing a regulatory contract under Section 35(1) that applies to that regulated entity, invite the regulated entity to submit to the Commission by a date that is at least two months after the date the invitation was issued –

- (a) a draft regulatory contract that applies to that regulated entity and that complies with the requirements of Section 35(3); and
- (b) such written submissions as to the form and content of that draft regulatory contract as the regulated entity considers appropriate.

(2) After considering any material submitted by a regulated entity on or prior to the date specified in the invitation issued under Subsection (1), the Commission shall –

- (a) send to the Minister, the regulated entity and any other person the Commission considers appropriate; and
- (b) make available for inspection and purchase by members of the public, a copy of –

- (c) the draft regulatory contract and written submissions (if any) submitted to the Commission by the regulated entity under Subsection (1) by the date specified in the invitation issued under Subsection (1); and
- (d) an issues paper prepared by the Commission which sets out the Commission's preliminary views in relation to, and identifies any issues which the Commission considers relevant in connection with, the form and content of any regulatory contract that may be issued under Section 35(1) for the purposes of applying to the regulated entity and that also invites submissions on the matters raised in the issues paper by a date that is at least two months after the issues paper was issued.

(3) At least one month prior to the date it issues any regulatory contract under Section 35(1) and after having considered any submissions received by the Commission on or prior to the date specified in the issues paper, the Commission shall send to the Minister, the regulated entity and any other person who has made submissions as described in this section –

- (a) a copy of the regulatory contract that it proposes to issue under Section 35(1) for the purposes of applying to the regulated entity; and
- (b) a summary of the information on which the regulatory contract is based; and
- (c) a statement of the reasons for making the regulatory contract in that form.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(4) The procedure and time limits set out in this section may be varied, in relation to their application to the issue of a regulatory contract, by the terms of any regulatory contract by which the relevant regulated entity is bound.

(5) Unless the declaration of the relevant entity as a regulated entity has been revoked, the Commission shall ensure that prior to the term of a regulatory contract applying to a regulated entity expiring, the Commission issues under Section 35(1) a replacement regulatory contract that will take effect upon the expiry of the term of the previous regulatory contract.

(6) If the Commission fails to issue a replacement regulatory contract in accordance with Subsection (5), the draft regulatory contract (if any) submitted by the regulated entity under Subsection (1) shall be deemed to be a regulatory contract issued by the Commission under Section 35(1) and shall apply until such time as the Commission issues a regulatory contract under Section 35(1).

37. COMPLIANCE WITH REGULATORY CONTRACTS.

(1) Notice of a regulatory contract being issued under Section 34 or Section 35 shall be published in the National Gazette.

(2) A regulatory contract takes effect on the date on which notice is published in the National Gazette or a later date of commencement specified in the regulatory contract.

(3) After publication of the notice in the National Gazette, the Commission shall ensure that copies of the regulatory contract are available for inspection and purchase by members of the public.

(4) A regulated entity shall comply with the terms of any regulatory contract that applies to it.

(5) The Commission shall perform any function that a regulatory contract contemplates will be performed by the Commission for the purposes of the regulatory contract in accordance with the regulatory contract.

(6) A regulatory contract that applies to that regulated entity shall not be varied or revoked except with the agreement of both the Commission and the regulated entity.

(7) A regulatory contract made under this Part –

(a) takes effect as an agreement between the Commission and the regulated entity to which the regulatory contract relates and shall be executed by the Commission and the regulated entity as the parties to the agreement as soon as practicable after it is made; and

(b) is not a subordinate legislative enactment for the purpose of Section 116 of the Constitution and need not be tabled in Parliament; and

(8) If, notwithstanding Subsection (7), a regulatory contract is disallowed in whole or in part pursuant to Section 116 of the Constitution, then –

(a) notwithstanding Section 91 of the Interpretation Act (Chapter 2), the Minister responsible for treasury matters or the Commission, as the case may be, shall remake, as soon as practicable, the regulatory contract in accordance with Part III in substantially the same form as the disallowed regulatory contract; and

- (b) any person who has rights and liabilities under the regulatory contract that is disallowed in whole or in part is entitled to rely on the rights, and is obliged to continue to assume the liabilities, under the disallowed regulatory contract, until such time as a further regulatory contract is made under Paragraph (a).

(9) This Act is an Act of Parliament contemplated by Section 116(2) of the Constitution.

38. ENFORCEMENT OF REGULATORY CONTRACTS.

(1) If the Commission forms the opinion that, on the balance of probabilities, a regulated entity is contravening or is likely to contravene a regulatory contract and that the contravention is of a material nature, the Commission may, by written order, require the regulated entity to comply with the regulatory contract within a reasonable period as specified in the notice.

(2) An order under Subsection (1) may be a provisional order or a final order.

(3) Unless withdrawn earlier by the Commission, a provisional order has effect for a period of seven days commencing on the day that it is served.

(4) The Commission may serve another provisional order on the expiry of a proceeding provisional order.

(5) If the Commission has made a provisional order, the Commission shall not make a final order if –

- (a) the relevant regulated entity has given an undertaking as to compliance with the regulatory contract and the Commission has accepted the undertaking; or
- (b) the Commission becomes satisfied that the provisional order should not have been made having regard to the factors to which the Commission is required to have regard under this Act or any other Act.

(6) The Commission shall not make a final order unless the Commission has –

- (a) given the relevant regulated entity at least 28 days' notice of its intention to do so; and
- (b) given the relevant regulated entity a reasonable opportunity to make a submission in respect of the order; and
- (c) considered any submission or other objection to the order received by the Commission.

(7) The Commission shall, as soon as possible after serving a provisional order or a final order on a regulated entity, publish a copy of the order in the National Gazette.

39. COMPLIANCE WITH ORDER.

(1) A regulated entity shall comply with –

- (a) a provisional order or a final order served on it under Section 38; or
- (b) an undertaking given by it and accepted by the Commission under Section 38.

Penalty: A fine not exceeding K10,000,000.00.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (2) If a person profits from a contravention of Subsection (1), the Commission may recover an amount equal to the profit from the person –
- (a) on application to a court convicting the person of an offence under that subsection; or
 - (b) by action in a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (3) Any amount recovered under this section shall be paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

PART IV. – CODES AND RULES.

40. CODES AND RULES.

- (1) The Commission may make codes or rules relating to the conduct or operations of a participant in a regulated industry.
- (2) The Commission may vary or revoke a code or rule made under Subsection (1).
- (3) The Commission shall, before making, varying or revoking a code or rule, consult with the Minister, any regulated entity to which the code or rule applies or is intended to apply and such other persons or representative bodies as the Commission considers appropriate.
- (4) A code or rule may apply or incorporate, wholly or partially and with or without modification, a document referred to in the code or rule, as in force from time to time or as in force at a particular time.
- (5) The Commission shall –
- (a) give a copy of any new code or rule, a copy of any variation to any code or rule and notice of the revocation of any code or rule –
 - (i) to the Minister; and
 - (ii) to each regulated entity to which the code or rule applies or is intended to apply; and
 - (b) ensure that copies of the code or rule (as in force from time to time) are available for inspection and purchase by members of the public.
- (6) Notice of the making of a code or rule, or the variation or revocation of a code or rule, shall be published in the National Gazette.
- (7) A code or rule, or variation or revocation of a code or rule, takes effect on the date on which it is notified in the National Gazette or a later date specified by the Commission in the code or rule.
- (8) The Commission shall keep the contents and operation of codes and rules under review with a view to ensuring their continued relevance and effectiveness.
- (9) Nothing in this section permits a code or rule to be made, varied or revoked where that would be inconsistent with the terms of a regulatory contract.

PART V. – PANEL OF EXPERTS, APPEALS PANEL AND APPEALS.

41. PANEL OF EXPERTS.

- (1) The Head of State, acting with, and in accordance with, the advice of a majority of the members of the Appointments Committee, shall –

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (a) appoint a panel of experts who may sit as members of the Appeals Panel; and
 - (b) appoint a member of the panel as the chairman of the panel.
- (2) A person is not eligible for appointment to the Panel of Experts unless he –
- (a) is a person of integrity, independence of mind and of good reputation; and
 - (b) has knowledge of or experience in industry, commerce, economics, law, public administration or consumer protection.
- (3) At least one of the persons appointed to the Panel of Experts –
- (a) shall have international experience in the operation and administration of an economic regulatory regime; and
 - (b) shall not be a resident of Papua New Guinea; and
 - (c) shall be known as the ‘International Arbitrator’.
- (4) A member of the Commission may not be appointed to the Panel of Experts.
- (5) A member of the Panel of Experts shall be appointed for a term of office of five years and on the conditions determined by a majority of the members of the Appointments Committee and specified in the instrument of appointment.
- (6) A member of the Panel of Experts may resign by giving to the Head of State three months’ notice in writing of his intention to resign.
- (7) The period of three months specified in Subsection (6) is deemed to commence on the twenty-second day after the receipt by the Head of State of the notice except where the Head of State, acting with, and in accordance with, the advice of a majority of the members of the Appointments Committee, by notice in writing to the member, fixes an earlier date for the commencement of that period.
- (8) A member of the Appeals Panel may withdraw his resignation at any time before the period of three months referred to in Subsection (6) commences.
- (9) A member of the Panel of Experts ceases to hold that office if he –
- (a) dies; or
 - (b) resigns in accordance with Subsection 6; or
 - (c) attains the age of 70 years; or
 - (d) is not re-appointed at the end of a term of office; or
 - (e) is removed from office under Subsection (10).
- (10) The Court, on the application of the Minister, may remove or suspend a member of the Appeals Panel from office for –
- (a) misconduct; or
 - (b) incapacity to perform satisfactorily the member’s functions; or
 - (c) material contravention of or failure to comply with the requirements of this or any other Act conferring functions on the Appeals Panel.
- (11) The Minister may only bring an application under Subsection (10) acting with, and in accordance with, the advice of the National Executive Council.
- (12) A member of the Appeals Panel may only be removed or suspended from office as provided in this section.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

42. APPEALS PANEL.

(1) Subject to this section and the provisions of any other Act, the chairman of the Panel of Experts shall determine the constitution of the Appeals Panel for the purposes of reviewing any decision where an application for review of that decision is made to the Appeals Panel under this or any other Act.

(2) A member of the Panel of Experts who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter before the Appeals Panel is disqualified from participating in the hearing of that matter.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the interest is only as a result of the supply of goods or services that are available to members of the public on the same terms and conditions.

(4) The Appeals Panel shall comprise one member of the Panel of Experts.

(5) Where the decision the subject of an application for review is a decision of the Commission referred to in Subsection 43(1), the Appeals Panel shall consist of an International Arbitrator (unless, in the case of a decision of the Commission referred to in Paragraphs 43(1)(c) to (e) inclusive, a regulatory contract applying to the regulated entity concerned at the time of the decision provides that the Appeals Panel need not consist of an International Arbitrator).

(6) Subject to Subsection (7) the Appeals Panel has no power to award costs against a party to a review.

(7) Subject to Subsection 43 (11), the costs of the Appeals Panel shall be borne as determined by the Appeals Panel.

43. APPEALS FROM CERTAIN DECISIONS OF THE COMMISSION.

(1) An application may be made to the Appeals Panel –

- (a) by a regulated entity or the Minister for review of a decision of the Commission under Section 33 to declare that entity to be a regulated entity or to revoke a declaration of an entity as a regulated entity; or
- (b) by a regulated entity or the Minister for review of a decision of the Commission under Section 33 to declare any goods or services supplied or capable of being supplied by that entity to be regulated goods or regulated services (as the case may be) or to revoke a declaration of goods or services as regulated goods or services; or
- (c) by a regulated entity or the Minister for review of a decision of the Commission under Section 35 as to the terms and conditions of any regulatory contract applying to that entity that is issued by the Commission under that section; or
- (d) by a regulated entity or the Minister for review of a decision or deemed decision of the Commission under any regulatory contract applying to that entity that is issued under Section 34 or Section 35; or
- (e) by a regulated entity for review of a decision made by the Commission under Section 38.

(2) An application for review of a decision of the Commission referred to in Subsection (1) shall –

- (a) be in writing; and

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (b) set out the decision or part of the decision to which the application relates; and
 - (c) set out in detail the grounds on which the applicant seeks review and the decision sought on the review; and
 - (d) be accompanied by any information that the applicant considers should be taken into account by the Appeals Panel on the review; and
 - (e) be lodged with the Appeals Panel within ten days after written notice of the decision is given to the applicant or in the case of a deemed decision within ten days after the decision is deemed to have been made (or such longer period as the Appeals Panel may allow).
- (3) If an application is made for review of a decision of the Commission referred to in Subsection (1) –
- (a) the Appeals Panel shall give a copy of the application to the Minister or the relevant regulated entity (as the case requires) and the Commission; and
 - (b) invite whichever of them is not the applicant to join as a party to the review and make submissions on the matter the subject of the review in a manner and within the period specified by the Appeals Panel.
- (4) The Appeals Panel may stay the operation of the decision of the Commission to which the application relates.
- (5) If a decision is stayed, the Appeals Panel shall cause notice of the stay of the decision –
- (a) to be given to the Minister, the regulated entity to which the decision applies and the Commission; and
 - (b) to be published in the National Gazette.
- (6) A review shall be decided within six weeks of the application being lodged with the Appeals Panel, and, if the Appeals Panel fails to decide a review within this time, the applicant may apply to the National Court for an order that the Appeals Panel decide the review.
- (7) On a review, the Appeals Panel –
- (a) is only to consider the information that was available to the Commission when it made the decision that is the subject of the application for review; and
 - (b) is not bound by the rules of evidence; and
 - (c) may adopt such procedures it sees fit.
- (8) After considering the application, the Appeals Panel may either –
- (a) confirm the decision of the Commission; or
 - (b) return the matter to the Commission with such directions as the Appeals Panel considers appropriate and the Commission shall remake its decision in accordance with the Appeals Panel’s directions including any directions in relation to the retrospective effect of the remade decision.
- (9) In making its decision, the Appeals Panel is to have regard to the need for consistency with previous decisions of the Appeals Panel.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(10) The Appeals Panel shall give the parties to the review written notice of the Appeals Panel's decision, and the reasons for the decision, on the review.

(11) The costs of the Appeals Panel in a review of a decision of the Commission referred to in Subsection (1) shall be borne by the Commission to the extent the application for review is successful and by the applicant to the extent that application for review is unsuccessful, as determined by the Appeals Panel.

(2) In this Part –

- (a) a reference to engaging in conduct is to be read as a reference to doing or refusing to do any act, including –
 - (i) the entering into, or the giving effect to a provision of, a contract or arrangement; and
 - (ii) the arriving at, or the giving effect to a provision of, an understanding; and
 - (iii) the requiring of the giving of, or the giving of, a covenant; and
- (b) a reference to conduct, when that expression is used as a noun otherwise than as mentioned in Subsection 2(a), is to be read as a reference to the doing of, or the refusing to do, any act, including –
 - (i) the entering into, or the giving effect to a provision of, a contract or arrangement; and
 - (ii) the arriving at, or the giving effect to a provision of, an understanding; and
 - (iii) the requiring of the giving of, or the giving of, a covenant; and
- (c) a reference to refusing to do an act includes a reference to –
 - (i) refraining (otherwise than inadvertently) from doing that act; and
 - (ii) making it known that that act will not be done; and
- (d) a reference to a person offering to do an act, or to do an act on a particular condition, includes a reference to the person making it known that the person will accept applications, offers or proposals for the person to do that act or to do that act on that condition, as the case may be.

(3) Where any provision of this Part is expressed to render a provision of a contract or a covenant unenforceable if the provision of the contract or the covenant has or is likely to have a particular effect, that provision of this Part applies in relation to the provision of the contract or the covenant at any time when the provision of the contract or the covenant has or is likely to have that effect, notwithstanding that –

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (a) at an earlier time the provision of the contract or the covenant did not have that effect or was not regarded as likely to have that effect; or
 - (b) the provision of the contract or the covenant will not or may not have that effect at a later time.
- (4) In this Part -
- (a) a reference to the acquisition of goods includes a reference to the acquisition of property in, or rights in relation to, goods in pursuance of a supply of the goods; and
 - (b) a reference to the supply or acquisition of goods or services includes a reference to agreeing to supply or acquire goods or services; and
 - (c) a reference to the supply or acquisition of goods includes a reference to the supply or acquisition of goods together with other property or services or both; and
 - (d) a reference to the supply or acquisition of services includes a reference to the supply or acquisition of services together with property or other services or both; and
 - (e) a reference to the resupply of goods acquired from a person includes a reference to –
 - (i) a supply of the goods to another person in an altered form or condition; and
 - (ii) a supply to another person of other goods in which the goods have been incorporated.
- (5) For the purposes of this Part –
- (a) a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding, or a covenant, is deemed to have had, or to have, a particular purpose if –
 - (i) the provision was or is included in the contract, arrangement or understanding, or the covenant was or is required to be given, for that purpose or purposes that included or include that purpose; and
 - (ii) that purpose was or is a substantial purpose; and
 - (b) a person is deemed to have engaged, or to engage, in conduct for a particular purpose or a particular reason if -
 - (i) that person engaged or engages in that conduct for that purpose or reason or for purposes or reasons that included or include that purpose or reason; and
 - (ii) that purpose or reason was or is a substantial purpose or reason.
- (6) In this Part –
- (a) a reference to a contract is to be construed as including a reference to a lease of, or a licence in respect of, any land or a building or part of a building, and is to be so construed notwithstanding any express reference in this Part to any such lease or licence; and
 - (b) a reference to making or entering into a contract, in relating to such a lease or licence, is to be read as a reference to granting or taking the lease or licence; and

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (c) a reference to a party to a contract, in relation to such a lease or licence, is to be read as including a reference to any person bound by, or entitled to the benefit of, any provision contained in the lease or licence.

(7) For the purposes of this Part, any two bodies corporate are to be treated as related if they are related corporations.

(8) For the purpose of this Part –

- (a) any contract or arrangement entered into, or understanding arrived at, by an association or body of persons is deemed to have been entered into or arrived at by all the persons who are members of the association or body; and
- (b) any recommendation made by an association or body of persons to its members or to any class of its members is deemed, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the constitution or rules of the association or body of persons, to be an arrangement made between those members or the members of that class and between the association or body of persons and those members or the members of that class.

(9) Nothing in Subsection (8) applies to –

- (a) any member of an association or body of persons who expressly notifies the association or body in writing that he disassociates himself from the contract, arrangement or understanding or any provision of it and who does so disassociate himself; or
- (b) any member of an association or body of persons who establishes that he had no knowledge and could not reasonably have been expected to have had knowledge of the contract, arrangement or understanding.

45. CERTAIN TERMS DEFINED IN RELATION TO COMPETITION.

(1) In this Part, "competition" means workable or effective competition, including competition from imports and substitutes.

(2) A reference in this Part to the term “market” is a reference to a market in the whole of Papua New Guinea for goods or services as well as other goods and services that, as a matter of fact and commercial common sense, are substitutable for them, including imports.

(3) In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires, a reference to the lessening of competition includes a reference to the hindering or preventing of competition.

(4) For the purposes of this Part, the effect on competition in a market is to be determined by reference to all material factors that affect competition in that market including competition from goods or services supplied or likely to be supplied by persons not resident or not carrying on business in Papua New Guinea.

(5) In Sections 50 and 51, a reference to a market in relation to the purpose or effect in respect of competition of a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding, or of a covenant, or of conduct, is to be read as including a reference to –

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (a) a market in which a person who is a party to the contract, arrangement or understanding or any related corporation, or in which the person or any associated person (within the meaning of Section 51(7)) who requires the giving of or gives the covenant, supplies or acquires or is likely to supply or acquire, or would, but for that provision, covenant or conduct, supply or acquire or be likely to supply or acquire goods or services; and
- (b) any other market in which those goods or services may be supplied or acquired.

(6) For the purposes of Section 50, a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding is deemed to have or to be likely to have the effect of substantially lessening competition in a market if that provision and –

- (a) the other provisions of that contract, arrangement or understanding; or
- (b) the provisions of any other contract, arrangement or understanding to which that person or any related corporation is a party, taken together, have or are likely to have the effect of substantially lessening competition in that market.

(7) For the purposes of Section 51, a covenant is deemed to have or to be likely to have the effect of substantially lessening competition in a market if –

- (a) that covenant; and
- (b) any other covenant to the benefit of which that person or an associated person (within the meaning of Section 51(7)) is entitled or would be entitled if the covenant were enforceable, taken together, have or are likely to have the effect of substantially lessening competition in that market.

(8) For the purposes of Sections 50 and 51, the engaging in conduct is deemed to have or to be likely to have the effect of substantially lessening competition in a market if –

- (a) the engaging in that conduct; and
- (b) the engaging by that person in conduct of the same or a similar kind, taken together, have or are likely to have the effect of substantially lessening competition in that market.

46. COMMISSION TO CONSIDER EFFICIENCY.

Where the Commission is required under this Part to determine whether or not, or the extent to which, conduct will result, or will be likely to result, in a benefit to the public, the Commission shall have regard to any efficiencies that the Commission considers will result, or will be likely to result, from that conduct.

47. APPLICATION OF PART TO CONDUCT OUTSIDE PAPUA NEW GUINEA.

(1) This Part extends to the engaging in conduct outside Papua New Guinea by any person resident or carrying on business in Papua New Guinea to the extent that such conduct affects a market in Papua New Guinea.

(2) Without limiting Subsection (1), Section 69 extends to the acquisition outside Papua New Guinea by a person (whether or not the person is resident or carries on business in Papua New Guinea) of the assets of a business or shares to the extent that the acquisition affects a market in Papua New Guinea.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

48. APPLICATION OF PART TO THE STATE.

(1) Subject to this section, this Part binds the State only in so far as the State engages in trade.

(2) The State is not liable to pay a pecuniary penalty under Section 87.

(3) The State is not liable to be prosecuted for an offence against this Part.

(4) Where it is alleged that the State has contravened any provision of this Part and that contravention constitutes an offence, the Commission or the person directly affected by the contravention may apply to the Court for a declaration that the State has contravened that provision and, if the Court is satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that the State has contravened that provision, it may make a declaration accordingly.

(5) The protection in Subsections (2) and (3) does not apply to an authority of the State.

49. LAW RELATING TO RESTRAINT OF TRADE AND BREACHES OF CONFIDENCE NOT AFFECTED.

(1) Nothing in this Part limits or affects any rule of law relating to restraint of trade not inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Part.

(2) Nothing in this Part limits or affects any rule of law relating to breaches of confidence.

(3) No rule of law referred to in Subsection (1) or Subsection (2) affects the interpretation of any of the provisions of this Part.

Division 2. – Market Conduct Rules.

Subdivision A. – Practices Substantially Lessening Competition.

50. CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS OR UNDERSTANDINGS SUBSTANTIALLY LESSENING COMPETITION PROHIBITED.

(1) A person shall not enter into a contract or arrangement, or arrive at an understanding, containing a provision that has the purpose, or has or is likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in a market.

(2) A person shall not give effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding that has the purpose, or has or is likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in a market.

(3) Subsection (2) applies in respect of a contract or arrangement entered into, or an understanding arrived at, whether before or after the commencement of this section.

(4) No provision of a contract, whether made before or after the commencement of this section, that has the purpose, or has or is likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in a market, is enforceable.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

51. COVENANTS SUBSTANTIALLY LESSENING COMPETITION PROHIBITED.

- (1) A person, either on his own or on behalf of an associated person, shall not –
- (a) require the giving of a covenant; or
 - (b) give a covenant,

that has the purpose, or has or is likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in a market.

(2) A person, either on his own or on behalf of an associated person, shall not carry out or enforce the terms of a covenant that has the purpose, or has or is likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in a market.

(3) Subsection (2) applies to a covenant whether given before or after the commencement of this section.

(4) No covenant, whether given before or after the commencement of this section, that has the purpose, or has or is likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in a market, is enforceable.

- (5) A person shall not –
- (a) threaten to engage in particular conduct if a person who, but for Subsection (4), would be bound by a covenant, does not comply with the terms of the covenant; or
 - (b) engage in particular conduct because a person who, but for Subsection (4), would be bound by a covenant, has failed to comply, or proposes or threatens to fail to comply, with the terms of the covenant.

- (6) Where a person –
- (a) issues an invitation to another person to enter into a contract containing a covenant; or
 - (b) makes an offer to another person to enter into a contract containing a covenant; or
 - (c) makes it known that the person will not enter into a contract of a particular kind unless the contract contains a covenant of a particular kind or in particular terms, that person, by issuing that invitation, making that offer, or making that fact known, is deemed to require the giving of the covenant.

(7) For the purposes of this section, two persons shall be taken to be associated with each other in relation to a covenant or proposed covenant if, but only if –

- (a) one person is under an obligation (otherwise than in pursuance of the covenant or proposed covenant), whether formal or informal, to act in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of the other person in relation to the covenant or proposed covenant; or
- (b) the persons are related corporations.

52. CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS OR UNDERSTANDINGS CONTAINING EXCLUSIONARY PROVISIONS PROHIBITED.

(1) Subject to Subsection (2), for the purposes of this Part, a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding is an exclusionary provision if –

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (a) it is a provision of a contract or arrangement entered into, or understanding arrived at, between persons of whom any two or more are in competition with each other; and
- (b) it has the purpose of preventing, restricting or limiting –
 - (i) the supply of goods or services to; or
 - (ii) the acquisition of goods or services from, any particular person or class of persons, either generally or in particular circumstances or on particular conditions, by all or any of the parties to the contract, arrangement or understanding, or if a party is a body corporate, by a corporation that is related to that party; and
- (c) the particular person or the class of persons to which the provision relates is in competition with one or more of the parties to the contract, arrangement or understanding in relation to the supply or acquisition of those goods or services.

(2) A provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding that would, but for this subsection, be an exclusionary provision under Subsection (1) is not an exclusionary provision if it is proved that the provision does not have the purpose, or does not have or is not likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in a market.

(3) For the purpose of Subsections (1)(a) and(c), a person is in competition with another person if that person or any related corporation is, or is likely to be, or, but for the relevant provision, would be or would be likely to be, in competition with the other person, or with a related corporation of that person, in relation to the supply or acquisition of all or any of the goods or services to which that relevant provision relates.

(4) A person shall not enter into a contract or arrangement, or arrive at an understanding, that contains an exclusionary provision.

(5) A person shall not give effect to an exclusionary provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding.

(6) Subsection (5) applies to an exclusionary provision of a contract or arrangement made, or understanding arrived at, whether before or after the commencement of this section.

(7) No exclusionary provision of a contract, whether made before or after the commencement of this section, is enforceable.

Subdivision B. – Price Fixing.

53. CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF CONTRACTS, ETC., WITH RESPECT TO PRICES DEEMED TO SUBSTANTIALLY LESSEN COMPETITION.

(1) Without limiting the generality of Section 50, a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding is deemed for the purposes of that section to have the purpose, or to have or to be likely to have effect, of substantially lessening competition in a market if the provision has the purpose, or has or is likely to have the effect, of fixing, controlling, or maintaining, or providing for the fixing, controlling, or maintaining of, the price for goods or services, or any discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to goods or services, that are –

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (a) supplied or acquired by the parties to the contract, arrangement or understanding, or by any of them, or by any corporations that are related to any of them, in competition with each other; or
- (b) resupplied by persons to whom the goods are supplied by the parties to the contract, arrangement or understanding, or by any of them, or by any corporations that are related to any of them, in competition with each other.

(2) The reference in Subsection (1)(a) to the supply or acquisition of goods or services by persons in competition with each other includes a reference to the supply or acquisition of goods or services by persons who, but for a provision of any contract, arrangement or understanding, would be, or would be likely to be, in competition with each other in relation to the supply or acquisition of the goods or services.

54. JOINT VENTURE PRICING EXEMPT FROM APPLICATION OF SECTION 53.

(1) For the purposes of this section –

- (a) "joint venture" means an activity in trade –
 - (i) carried on by two or more persons, whether or not in partnership; or
 - (ii) carried on by a body corporate for the purpose of enabling two or more persons to carry on that activity jointly by means of their joint control, or by means of their ownership of shares in the capital, of that body corporate or a related corporation; and
- (b) a reference to a contract or arrangement entered into, or an understanding arrived at, for the purposes of a joint venture is, in relation to a joint venture by way of an activity carried on by a body corporate in terms of Subsection (1)(a)(ii), to be read as including a reference to the constitution, memorandum and articles of association, rules, or other document that constitute or constitutes, or is or are to constitute, that body corporate.

(2) Nothing in Section 53 applies to a provision of a contract or arrangement entered into, or an understanding arrived at, for the purposes of a joint venture, to the extent that the provision relates to –

- (a) the joint supply by two or more of the parties to the joint venture, or the supply by all the parties to the joint venture in proportion to their respective interests in the joint venture, of goods jointly produced by all the parties to the joint venture in pursuance of the joint venture; or
- (b) the joint supply by two or more of the parties to the joint venture of services in pursuance of the joint venture, or the supply by all the parties to the joint venture in proportion to their respective interests in the joint venture, of services in pursuance of, and made available as a result of, the joint venture; or
- (c) in the case of a joint venture carried on by a body corporate in terms of Subsection (1)(a)(ii) –
 - (i) the supply by that body corporate of goods produced by it in pursuance of the joint venture; or

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (ii) the supply by that body corporate of services in pursuance of the joint venture, not being services supplied on behalf of the body corporate by a person who is the owner of shares in the capital of the body corporate or in the capital of a corporation that is related to such a person.

55. CERTAIN RECOMMENDATIONS AS TO PRICES FOR GOODS AND SERVICES EXEMPT FROM APPLICATION OF SECTION 53.

Nothing in Section 53 applies to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding to the extent that the provision recommends or provides for the recommending of the price for, or a discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to, goods or services where the parties to the contract, arrangement or understanding include not less than 50 persons (corporations that are related to each other being counted as a single person) who supply or acquire, in trade, goods or services to which the provision applies.

56. JOINT BUYING AND PROMOTION ARRANGEMENTS EXEMPT FROM APPLICATION OF SECTION 53.

Nothing in Section 53 applies to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding that –

- (a) relates to the price for goods or services to be collectively acquired, whether directly or indirectly, by parties to the contract, arrangement or understanding; or
- (b) provides for joint advertising of the price for the resupply of goods or services so acquired.

57. CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF COVENANTS WITH RESPECT TO PRICES DEEMED TO SUBSTANTIALLY LESSEN COMPETITION.

(1) Without limiting the generality of Section 51, a covenant is deemed for the purposes of that section to have the purpose, or to have or to be likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in a market if the covenant has the purpose, or has or is likely to have the effect, of fixing, controlling, or maintaining, or providing for the fixing, controlling or maintain of, the price for goods or services, or any discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to goods or services, that are –

- (a) supplied or acquired by the persons giving the covenant or the persons entitled to the benefit of the covenant, or by any of them, or by any corporations that are related to any of them, in competition with each other; or
- (b) resupplied by persons to whom the goods are supplied by the persons giving the covenant or the persons entitled to the benefit of the covenant, or by any of them, or by any corporations that are related to any of them, in competition with each other.

(2) The reference in Subsection (1)(a) to the supply or acquisition of goods or services by persons in competition with each other includes a reference to the supply or acquisition of goods or services by persons who, but for the covenant, would be, or would be likely to be, in competition with each other in relation to the supply or acquisition of the goods or services.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

Subdivision C. – Taking Advantage of Market Power.

58. TAKING ADVANTAGE OF MARKET POWER.

(1) Nothing in this section applies to any practice or conduct to which this Part applies that has been authorized under Division 3 of this Part.

(2) A person that has a substantial degree of power in a market shall not take advantage of that power for the purpose of –

- (a) restricting the entry of a person into that or any other market; or
- (b) preventing or deterring a person from engaging in competitive conduct in that or any other market; or
- (c) eliminating a person from that or any other market.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person does not take advantage of a substantial degree of power in a market by reason only that the person seeks to enforce a statutory intellectual property right, within the meaning of Section 67(2), in Papua New Guinea.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a reference to a person includes two or more persons that are related corporations.

(5) The existence of any of the purposes specified in Subsection (2) may be inferred from the conduct of any relevant person or from any other relevant circumstances.

Subdivision D. – Resale Price Maintenance.

59. RESALE PRICE MAINTENANCE BY SUPPLIERS PROHIBITED.

(1) A person shall not engage in the practice of resale price maintenance.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a person engages in the practice of resale price maintenance if that person (in this section referred to as the “supplier”) does any of the following acts: –

- (a) the supplier makes it known to another person that the supplier will not supply goods or services to the other person unless the other person agrees not to sell or resupply those goods or services at a price less than a price specified by the supplier;
- (b) the supplier induces, or attempts to induce, another person not to sell or resupply, at a price less than a price specified by the supplier, goods or services supplied to the other person by the supplier or by a third person who, directly or indirectly, has obtained the goods or services from the supplier;
- (c) the supplier enters, or offers to enter into an agreement, for the supply of goods or services to another person where one of the terms is or would be that the other person will not sell or resupply the goods or services at a price less than a price specified, or that would be specified, by the supplier;
- (d) the supplier withholds the supply of goods or services to another person for the reason that the other person –
 - (i) has not agreed to the condition referred to in Paragraph (a); or

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (ii) has sold or resupplied, or is likely to sell or resupply, goods or services supplied to him by the supplier, or goods or services supplied to him by a third person who, directly or indirectly, has obtained the goods or services from the supplier, at a price less than a price specified by the supplier as the price below which the goods or services are not to be sold or resupplied;
 - (e) the supplier withholds the supply of goods or services to another person for the reason that a third person who, directly or indirectly, has obtained, or wishes to obtain, goods or services from the other person –
 - (i) has not agreed not to sell or resupply those goods or services at a price less than a price specified by the supplier; or
 - (ii) has sold or resupplied or is likely to sell or resupply goods or services supplied or to be supplied to that third person by the other person at a price less than a price specified by the supplier as the price below which the goods or services are not to be sold or resupplied.
- (3) For the purposes of Subsection (2) –
- (a) where the supplier makes it known, in respect of any goods or services, that the price below which those goods or services are not to be sold or resupplied is a price specified by another person in respect of those goods or services, or in respect of goods or services of a like description, that price is deemed to have been specified, in respect of the first-mentioned goods or services, by the supplier; and
 - (b) where a set form, method or formula is specified by or on behalf of the supplier and a price may be ascertained by calculation from, or by reference to, that set form, method or formula, that price is deemed to have been specified by the supplier; and
 - (c) where the supplier makes it known, in respect of any goods or services, that the price below which those goods or services are not to be sold or resupplied is a price ascertained by calculation from or by reference to a set form, method or formula specified by another person in respect of those goods or services, or in respect of goods or service of a like description, that price is deemed to have been specified, in respect of the first-mentioned goods or services, by the supplier; and
 - (d) where the supplier makes a statement to another person of a price that is likely to be understood by that person as the price below which goods or services are not to be sold or resupplied, that price is deemed to have been specified by the supplier as the price below which the goods or services are not to be sold; and
 - (e) anything done by a person acting on behalf of, or by arrangement with, the supplier is deemed to have been done by the supplier.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, sale and resupply includes advertise for sale or resupply, display for sale or resupply and offer for sale or resupply, and sell, selling and sold and resupplying and resupplied have corresponding meanings.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

60. RESALE PRICE MAINTENANCE BY OTHERS PROHIBITED.

- (1) A person (in this section referred to as the “third party”) shall not –
 - (a) make it known to another person that the third party proposes to engage in conduct, whether alone or in concert with any other person, that will hinder or prevent the supply of any goods or services to, or the acquisition of any goods or services from, that person unless that person agrees not to sell or resupply those goods or services at a price less than the price specified by the third party; or
 - (b) engage in conduct, whether alone or in concert with any other person, that will hinder or prevent the supply of goods or services to, or the acquisition of goods or services from, another person for the purpose of inducing that person not to sell or resupply those goods or services at a price less than a price specified by the third party.

- (2) For the purposes of Subsection (1) –
 - (a) where the third party makes it known, in respect of any goods or services, that the price below which those goods or services are not to be sold or resupplied is a price specified by another person in respect of those goods or services, or in respect of goods or services of a like description, that price is deemed to have been specified in respect of the first-mentioned goods or services by the third party; and
 - (b) where a set form, method or formula is specified by or on behalf of the third party and a price may be ascertained by calculation from, or by reference to, that set form, method or formula, that price is deemed to have been specified by the third party; and
 - (c) where the third party makes it known, in respect of any goods or services, that the price below which those goods or services are not to be sold or resupplied is a price ascertained by calculation from or by reference to a set form, method or formula specified by another person in respect of those goods or services, or in respect of goods or services of a like description, that price is deemed to have been specified, in respect of the first-mentioned goods or services, by the third party; and
 - (d) where the third party makes a statement to another person of a price that is likely to be understood by that person as the price below which goods or services are not to be sold or resupplied, that price is deemed to have been specified by the third party as the price below which the goods or services are not to be sold; and
 - (e) anything done by a person acting on behalf of, or by arrangement with, the third party is deemed to have been done by the third party.

(3) For the purposes of this section, sale and resupply includes advertise for sale or resupply, display for sale or resupply and offer for sale or resupply, and sell, selling and sold and resupplying and resupplied have corresponding meanings.

61. RECOMMENDED PRICES.

For the purposes of Section 59(2)(b) a supplier of any goods or services is not to be taken as inducing, or attempting to induce, another person not to sell or resupply those goods or services at a price less than a price specified by the supplier merely because –

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (a) a statement of a price is applied or used in relation to the goods or services or is applied to a covering, label, reel or thing if the statement is preceded by the words “recommended price”; or
- (b) the supplier has given notification in writing to the other person (not being a notification in the form of a statement applied to the goods or services or to any covering, label, reel or thing as mentioned in Paragraph (a)) of the price that the supplier recommends as appropriate for the sale or resupply of those goods or services, if the notification, and each writing that refers, whether expressly or by implication, to the notification, includes a statement to the effect that the price is a recommended price only and there is no obligation to comply with the recommendation.

62. WITHHOLDING THE SUPPLY OF GOODS OR SERVICES.

For the purposes of Section 59(2)(d) and (e), the supplier is deemed to withhold the supply of goods or services to another person if –

- (a) the supplier refuses or fails to supply those goods or services to, or as requested by, the other person; or
- (b) the supplier refuses to supply those goods or services except on terms that are disadvantageous to the other person; or
- (c) in supplying those goods or services to the other person, the supplier treats that person less favourably, whether in respect of time, method, place of delivery or otherwise, than the supplier treats other persons to whom the supplier supplies the same or similar goods or services; or
- (d) the supplier causes or procures a person to act in relation to the supply of goods or services in the manner specified in Paragraphs (a), (b) or (c).

63. PREVENTING THE SUPPLY OF GOODS OR SERVICES.

For the purposes of Section 60 –

- (a) the supply of goods or services is deemed to be prevented if –
 - (i) the supply of those goods or services is refused except on terms that are disadvantageous to the person acquiring the goods or services; or
 - (ii) the supply of those goods or services is on terms which are less favourable, whether in respect of time, method, place of delivery or otherwise, than the person who supplies the goods or services treats other persons to whom the same or similar goods or services are supplied; and
- (b) the acquisition of goods or services is deemed to be prevented if –
 - (i) the acquisition of those goods or services is refused except on terms that are disadvantageous to the person supplying the goods or services; or
 - (ii) the acquisition of those goods or services is on terms which are less favourable, whether in respect of time, method, place of delivery or otherwise, than the person who acquires the goods or services treats other persons from whom the same or similar goods or services are acquired.

64. SPECIAL EVIDENTIARY PROVISIONS IN RESPECT OF CERTAIN RESALE PRICE MAINTENANCE PRACTICES.

(1) Where, in proceedings under this Act against a supplier for a contravention of Section 59(2)(b) or (e), it is proved that –

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (a) the supplier has acted in a manner referred to in Section 62; and
- (b) during a period ending immediately before the supplier so acted, the supplier had been supplying goods or services of the kind withheld either to –
 - (i) the person in respect of whom the contravention is alleged; or
 - (ii) a person carrying on a similar business to that person; and
- (c) during a period of six months immediately before the supplier so acted, the supplier became aware of a matter or circumstance capable of constituting a reason referred to in Section 59(2)(d) or (e), it must be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that the supplier so acted on account of that matter or circumstance.

(2) Nothing in Subsection (1) applies in respect of terms imposed by a supplier that are disadvantageous or treatment that is less favourable than the supplier accords other persons if the terms or treatment consists only of a requirement by the supplier as to the time at which, or the form in which, payment was to be made or as to the giving of security to secure payment.

Subdivision E – Exceptions.

65. STATUTORY EXCEPTIONS.

(1) Nothing in this Division applies in respect of any act, matter or thing that is, or is of a kind, specifically authorized by any Act or regulation made under this or any Act.

(2) For the purposes of Subsection (1), an Act or regulation does not provide specific authority for an act, matter or thing if it provides in general terms for that act, matter or thing, notwithstanding that the act, matter or thing requires or may be subject to approval or authorization by a Minister, statutory body or a person holding any particular office.

66. OTHER EXCEPTIONS.

- (1) Nothing in this Division applies to –
 - (a) the entering into of a contract or arrangement, or arriving at an understanding, between partners none of whom is a body corporate in so far as it contains a provision in relation to the terms of the partnership or the conduct of the partnership business or in relation to competition between the partnership and a party to the contract, arrangement or understanding while that party is, or after that party ceases to be, a partner; or
 - (b) the entering into of a contract of service or a contract for the provision of services in so far as it contains a provision by which a person, not being a body corporate, agrees to accept restrictions as to the work, whether as an employee or otherwise, in which that person may engage during, or after the termination of, the contract; or
 - (c) the entering into of a contract for, or the giving or requiring the giving of a covenant in connection with, the sale of a business or shares in the capital of a body corporate carrying on a business in so far as it contains a provision that is solely for the protection of the purchaser in respect of the goodwill of the business; or

- (d) the entering into of a contract or arrangement, or arriving at an understanding, in so far as it contains a provision obligating a person to comply with or apply standards of dimension, design, quality, or performance prepared or approved by any association or body as prescribed for the purpose of this paragraph; or
 - (e) the entering into of a contract or arrangement, or arriving at an understanding, in so far as it contains a provision that relates to the remuneration, conditions of employment, hours of work or working conditions of employees; or
 - (f) the entering into of a contract or arrangement, or arriving at an understanding, in so far as it contains a provision that relates exclusively to the export of goods from Papua New Guinea or exclusively to the supply of services wholly outside Papua New Guinea, if full and accurate particulars of the provision (not including particulars of prices for goods or service but including particulars of any method of fixing, controlling or maintaining such prices) were furnished to the Commission before the expiration of 15 days after the date on which the contract or arrangement was made or the understanding was arrived at, or 60 days after the commencement of this Section 66, whichever is the later; or
 - (g) any act done, otherwise than in trade, in concert by users of goods or services against the suppliers of those goods or services; or
 - (h) any act done to give effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding, or to a covenant, referred to in Paragraphs (a) to (f) inclusive.
- (2) Except for Section 58, nothing in this Division applies to –
- (a) the entering into of a contract or arrangement, or arriving at an understanding, or the giving or requiring the giving of a covenant, if the only parties, or (in the case of a covenant or proposed covenant) the only persons who are or would be respectively bound by, or entitled to the benefit of, the covenant or proposed covenant, are, or would be, related corporations; or
 - (b) any act done to give effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding, or to a covenant, referred to in Paragraph (a).
- (3) Nothing in this Division applies to –
- (a) the entering into of a contract or arrangement, or arriving at an understanding, in so far as it contains a provision exclusively for the carriage of goods by sea from a place in Papua New Guinea to a place outside Papua New Guinea or from a place outside Papua New Guinea to a place in Papua New Guinea; or
 - (b) any act done to give effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding is not a provision exclusively for the carriage of goods by sea if it relates to the carriage of goods to or from a ship or the loading or unloading of a ship.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(4) For the purposes of Subsection (3), a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding is not a provision exclusively for the carriage of goods by sea if it relates to the carriage of goods to or from a ship or the loading or unloading of a ship.

67. EXCEPTIONS IN RELATION TO INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS.

- (1) Nothing in this Division, except Section 58, 59 or 60, applies to –
- (a) the entering into of a contract or arrangement, or arriving at an understanding, in so far as it contains a provision authorizing any act that would otherwise be prohibited by reason of the existence of a statutory intellectual property right; or
 - (b) any act done to give effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding referred to in Paragraph (a).

(2) For the purposes of Subsection (1), a statutory intellectual property right means a right, privilege or entitlement that is conferred, or acknowledged as valid, by or under –

- (a) the Patents and Industrial Designs Act 2000; or
- (b) the Trade Marks Act (Chapter 385); or
- (c) the Copyright and Neighboring Rights Act 2000.

(3) For the purposes of Subsection (2) –

- (a) a person who has applied for a patent in accordance with Section 19 of the Patents and Industrial Designs Act 2000 and filed the complete specification in relation to the application is deemed, until the application is determined, to have been granted the patent to which the application relates; and
- (b) a person who has made an application for the registration of a design in accordance with Section 43 of the Patents and Industrial Designs Act 2000 is deemed, until the application is determined, to be the registered proprietor of the design; and
- (c) a person who has made an application in accordance with Section 32 of the Trade Marks Act (Ch. 385) for registration of a trade mark is deemed, until the application is determined, to be the registered proprietor of the trade mark.

68. SAVING IN RESPECT OF BUSINESS ACQUISITIONS.

Nothing in this Division applies to –

- (a) the entering into of a contract or arrangement, or the arriving at of an understanding, in so far as the contract, arrangement or understanding contains a provision that provides for the acquisition or disposition of assets of a business or shares; or
- (b) any act done to give effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding that provides for the acquisition or disposition of assets of a business or shares.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

Division 3. - Business Acquisitions.

69. CERTAIN ACQUISITIONS PROHIBITED.

(1) A person shall not acquire assets of a business or shares if the acquisition would have, or would be likely to have, the effect of substantially lessening competition in a market.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a reference to a person includes two or more persons that are related corporations or are associated.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person is associated with another person if that person is able, whether directly or indirectly, to exert a substantial degree of influence over the activities of the other.

(4) A person is not able to exert a substantial degree of influence over the activities of another person for the purposes of Subsection (3) by reason only of the fact that –

- (a) those persons are in competition in the same market; or
- (b) one of them supplies goods or services to the other.

(5) Without limiting the matters that may be taken into account for the purpose of Subsection (1) in determining whether the acquisition would have, or would be likely to have, the effect of substantially lessening competition in a market, the following matters shall be taken into account:–

- (a) the actual and potential level of import competition in the market;
- (b) the nature and effect of barriers to entry to the market;
- (c) the number of buyers and sellers in the market;
- (d) the degree of countervailing power in the market;
- (e) the likelihood that the acquisition would result in the acquirer being able to significantly and sustainably increase prices or profit margins;
- (f) the extent to which substitutes are available, or are likely to become available, in the market;
- (g) the dynamic characteristics of the market, including growth, innovation and product differentiation;
- (h) the likelihood that the acquisition would result in the removal from the market of a sustainable, vigorous and effective competitor;
- (i) the nature and extent of vertical integration in the market.

Division 4. - Authorizations and Clearances.

70. COMMISSION MAY GRANT AUTHORIZATION FOR RESTRICTIVE TRADE PRACTICES.

(1) A person who wishes to enter into a contract or arrangement or arrive at an understanding, to which he considers Section 50 would apply, or might apply, may apply to the Commission for an authorization to do so, and the Commission may grant an authorization for that person to enter into the contract or arrangement or arrive at the understanding.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(2) A person who wishes to give effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding to which he considers Section 50 would apply, or might apply, may apply to the Commission for an authorization to do so, and the Commission may grant an authorization for that person to give effect to the provision of the contract, arrangement or understanding.

(3) A person who wishes to carry out or enforce a covenant to which he considers Section 51 would apply, or might apply, may apply to the Commission for an authorization to do so, and the Commission may grant an authorization for that person to carry out or enforce the covenant.

(4) A person who wishes to require the giving of, or to give, a covenant to which he considers Section 51 would apply, or might apply, may apply to the Commission for an authorization to do so, and the Commission may grant an authorization for that person to require the giving of, or to give, the covenant.

(5) A person who wishes to enter into a contract or arrangement, or arrive at an understanding, to which he considers Section 52 would apply, or might apply, may apply to the Commission for an authorization to do so, and the Commission may grant an authorization for that person to enter into the contract or arrangement or arrive at the understanding.

(6) A person who wishes to give effect to an exclusionary provision of a contract, agreement or understanding to which he considers Section 52 would apply, or might apply, may apply to the Commission for an authorization to do so, and the Commission may grant an authorization for that person to give effect to the exclusionary provision of the contract, arrangement or understanding.

(7) A person who wishes to engage in the practice of resale price maintenance to which he considers Section 59 would apply, or might apply, may apply to the Commission for an authorization to do so, and the Commission may grant an authorization for that person to engage in the practice.

(8) A person who wishes to do an act or to engage in conduct to which he considers Section 60 would apply, or might apply, may apply to the Commission for an authorization to do so, and the Commission may grant an authorization for that person to do the act or engage in the conduct.

71. EFFECT OF AUTHORIZATION.

(1) While an authorization under Section 70(1) or (5) remains in force, as the case may be, nothing in Section 50 or Section 52, as the case may be, shall prevent the applicant from –

- (a) entering into or, in accordance with the authorization, giving effect to or enforcing, any provision of the contract to which the authorization relates; or
- (b) entering into or, in accordance with the authorization, giving effect to, the arrangement to which the authorization relates; or
- (c) arriving at or, in accordance with the authorization, giving effect to, the understanding to which the authorization relates.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(2) While an authorization under Section 70(2) or (6) remains in force, as the case may be, nothing in Section 50 or Section 52, as the case may be, shall prevent the applicant from –

- (a) in accordance with the authorization, giving effect to or enforcing the contract to which the authorization relates; or
- (b) in accordance with the authorization, giving effect to the arrangement or understanding to which the authorization relates.

(3) While an authorization under Section 70(3) remains in force, nothing in Section 51 shall prevent the applicant from –

- (a) requiring the giving of, or giving, the covenant to which the authorization relates; or
- (b) carrying out or enforcing the terms of the covenant to which the authorization relates in accordance with the authorization.

(4) While an authorization under Section 70(4) remains in force, nothing in Section 51 shall prevent the applicant from carrying out or enforcing the terms of the covenant to which the authorization relates in accordance with the authorization.

(5) While an authorization under Section 70(7) remains in force, nothing in Section 59 shall prevent the applicant from engaging in the practice to which the authorization relates in accordance with the authorization.

(6) While an authorization under Section 70(8) remains in force, nothing in Section 60 shall prevent the applicant from doing the act or engaging in the conduct to which the authorization relates in accordance with the authorization.

72. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO AUTHORIZATIONS.

- (1) An authorization granted by the Commission to a person under Section 70 to –
- (a) enter into a contract or arrangement or arrive at an understanding; or
 - (b) give effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding; or
 - (c) require the giving of, or give, a covenant; or
 - (d) carry out or enforce the terms of a covenant; or
 - (e) engage in the practice of resale price maintenance; or
 - (f) do any act or engage in any conduct referred to in Section 60, shall have effect as if it were also an authorization in the same terms to every other person named or referred to in the application for the authorization as a party to the contract, arrangement or understanding, or the practice, act or conduct or as a person who is or would be bound by, or entitled to the benefit of, the covenant, as the case may be.

(2) An authorization granted to a person under Section 70 may be expressed to apply to or in relation to another person who –

- (a) in the case of an authorization to enter into a contract or arrangement or arrive at an understanding, becomes a party to the proposed contract or arrangement at a time after it is entered into or becomes a party to the proposed understanding at a time after it is arrived at; and
- (b) in the case of an authorization to give effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding, becomes a party to the contract, arrangement or understanding at a time after the authorization is granted; and

- (c) in the case of an authorization to require the giving of, or to give, a covenant, becomes bound by, or entitled to the benefit of, the covenant at a time after the covenant is given; and
- (d) in the case of an authorization to carry out or enforce the terms of a covenant, becomes bound by, or entitled to the benefit of, the covenant at a time after the authorization is granted.

73. CONTRACTS OR COVENANTS SUBJECT TO AUTHORIZATION NOT PROHIBITED UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS.

- (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Part, but subject to Section 75 –
 - (a) a contract to which Section 50 or Section 52 applies may be entered into if the requirements of Subsection (2) are complied with; and
 - (b) a covenant to which Section 51 applies may be required to be given, or may be given, if the requirements of Subsection (2) are complied with.
- (2) For the purposes of Subsection (1), the requirements that must be met are –
 - (a) in the case of a contract to which Section 50 or Section 52 applies –
 - (i) that the contract is subject to a condition that the provision, or exclusionary provision, as the case may be, does not come into force unless and until authorization is granted to give effect to the provision or exclusionary provision; and
 - (ii) that application has been made for that authorization within 15 days after the contract is entered into; and
 - (b) in the case of a covenant to which Section 51 applies –
 - (i) that the covenant is subject to the condition that it does not have effect unless and until authorization is granted to give effect to it; and
 - (ii) that application has been made for that authorization within 15 days after the covenant is made.

74. WHEN COMMISSION MAY GRANT AUTHORIZATION.

- (1) The Commission may grant an authorization to a person –
 - (a) to enter into a contract or arrangement, or to arrive at an understanding, even though the contract or arrangement has been entered into, or the understanding has been arrived at, before the Commission makes a determination in respect of the application for that authorization; or
 - (b) to give effect to a provision of a contract or arrangement entered into, or an understanding arrived at, even though the applicant has already given, or is already giving, effect to the provision before the Commission makes a determination in respect of the application for that authorization; or
 - (c) to require the giving of, or to give a covenant even though the covenant has been given before the Commission makes a determination in respect of the application for that authorization; or
 - (d) to do an act or engage in conduct referred to in Section 59 or Section 60 even though the applicant has already done the act or is already engaging in the conduct before the Commission makes a determination in respect of the application for that authorization.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (2) Subject to Subsection (3), all of the parties to the contract, arrangement or understanding shall, unless and until authorization is granted, discontinue –
- (a) giving effect to the provision of the contract, arrangement or understanding; or
 - (b) engaging in conduct referred to in Section 59 or Section 60.

(3) The parties to a contract, arrangement or understanding may do any of the things set out in Subsection (2) if any of the parties establishes to the satisfaction of the Commission that discontinuing any of those things would, or would be likely to, result in exceptional hardship to any of the parties.

75. CONTRAVENTIONS NOT PREVENTED BY GRANTING OF AUTHORIZATION UNDER SECTION 73 OR SECTION 74.

Nothing in Section 73 or Section 74 prevents conduct that occurred before an authorization was granted in respect of it and that would otherwise have constituted a contravention of this Part from continuing to constitute a contravention.

76. PROCEDURE FOR APPLICATIONS FOR AUTHORIZATION OF RESTRICTIVE TRADE PRACTICES.

(1) If a form has been prescribed for this purpose, an application for an authorization under Section 70 shall –

- (a) be made in the prescribed form; and
- (b) contain such particulars as may be specified in the form; and
- (c) be accompanied by the prescribed application fee, if any.

(2) On the receipt of an application (that complies with Subsection (1) if applicable), the Commission shall immediately –

- (a) record the application in the register to be kept by the Commission for the purpose; and
- (b) give written notice of the date of registration to the person by or on whose behalf the application was made; and
- (c) give notice of the application to any other person who, in the Commission's opinion, is likely to have an interest in the application; and
- (d) give public notice of the application in such manner as the Commission thinks fit.

(3) A person who has an interest in any application in respect of which a notice is given under Subsection (2)(d) may give written notice to the Commission of his interest and the reason for that interest.

(4) On the receipt of an application that does not comply with Subsection (1), the Commission may, at its discretion –

- (a) accept the application and take the steps referred to in Subsection (2) in respect of that application; or
- (b) return the application to the person by or on whose behalf it was made; or
- (c) decline to register the application until it complies with Subsection (1).

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(5) Where the Commission declines to register an application under Subsection (4)(c), it shall immediately notify the person by or on whose behalf the application was made.

(6) The person making the application under Subsection (1), and any person on whose behalf it was made, and any person to whom the application relates, shall from time to time produce, or, as the case may be, furnish to the Commission, within such time as the Commission may specify, such further documents or information in relation to the application as may be required by the Commission for the purpose of enabling it to exercise its functions under this Part.

(7) Notwithstanding anything in Subsection (2) or Subsection (4), where the Commission is of the opinion that the matters to which an application relates, are for reasons other than arising from the application of any provision of this Part, unlikely to be proceeded with, the Commission may, in its discretion, return the application to the person by or on whose behalf the application was made.

(8) A person who has made an application to the Commission for an authorization may at any time, by notice in writing to the Commission, withdraw the application.

77. DETERMINATION OF APPLICATIONS FOR AUTHORIZATION OF RESTRICTIVE TRADE PRACTICES.

(1) The Commission shall, in respect of an application for an authorization under Section 70, make a determination in writing –

- (a) granting such authorization as it considers appropriate; or
- (b) declining the application.

(2) Any authorization granted pursuant to Section 70 may be granted subject to such conditions not inconsistent with this Part and for such period as the Commission thinks fit.

(3) The Commission shall take into account any submissions in relation to the application made to it by the applicant or by any other person.

(4) The Commission shall state in writing its reasons for a determination made by it.

(5) Before making a determination in respect of an application for an authorization, the Commission shall comply with the requirements of Section 78.

(6) The Commission shall not make a determination granting an authorization pursuant to an application under Section 70(1), (2), (3) or (4) unless it is satisfied that –

- (a) the entering into of the contract or arrangement or the arriving at the understanding; or
- (b) the giving effect to the provision of the contract, arrangement or understanding; or
- (c) the giving or the requiring of the giving of the covenant; or
- (d) the carrying out or enforcing of the terms of the covenant, as the case may be, to which the application relates, will in the circumstances result, or be likely to result, in a benefit to the public which would outweigh the lessening in competition that would result, or would be likely to result or is deemed to result, from it.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (7) The Commission shall not make a determination granting an authorization pursuant to an application under Section 70(5) or (6) unless it is satisfied that –
- (a) the entering into of the contract or arrangement or the arriving at the understanding; or
 - (b) the giving effect to the exclusionary provision of the contract, arrangement or understanding,
- as the case may be, to which the application relates, will in all the circumstances result, or be likely to result, in such a benefit to the public that –
- (c) the contract, arrangement or understanding should be permitted to be entered into or arrived at; or
 - (d) the exclusionary provision should be permitted to be given effect to.

- (8) The Commission shall not make a determination granting an authorization pursuant to an application under Section 70(7) or (8) unless it is satisfied that –
- (a) the engaging in the practice of resale price maintenance to which the application relates; or
 - (b) the act or conduct to which the application relates,
- as the case may be, will in all the circumstances result, or be likely to result, in such a benefit to the public that –
- (c) the engaging in the practice should be permitted; or
 - (d) the act or conduct should be permitted.

78. COMMISSION TO PREPARE DRAFT DETERMINATION IN RELATION TO RESTRICTIVE TRADE PRACTICES.

- (1) Before determining an application for an authorization under Section 70, the Commission shall prepare a draft determination in relation to the application.
- (2) The Commission shall send a copy of the draft determination and a summary of the reasons for it to –
- (a) the applicant; and
 - (b) any person to whom a notice has been given pursuant to Section 76(2)(c); and
 - (c) any person who has given a notice pursuant to Section 76(3) and who, in the opinion of the Commission has such an interest in the application as to justify the Commission sending a copy of the draft determination to him; and
 - (d) any other person who in the opinion of the Commission may assist the Commission in its determination of the application.
- (3) The applicant and each other person to whom a copy of the draft determination is sent shall notify the Commission within 10 days after a date fixed by the Commission (not being a date earlier than the day on which the notice is sent) whether the applicant or other person wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft determination.
- (2) –
- (a) notifies the Commission within the period of 10 days referred to in Subsection (3) that the person does not wish the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft determination; or

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(b) does not notify the Commission within that period that the person wishes the Commission to hold such a conference, the Commission may make the determination at any time after the expiration of that period.

(5) If any of the persons to whom a draft determination was sent under Subsection (2) notifies the Commission, in writing, within the period of 10 days referred to in Subsection (3) that he wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft determination, the Commission shall –

- (a) appoint a date (not being a date later than 20 days after the expiration of that period) time and place for the holding of the conference; and
- (b) give notice of the date, time and place so appointed to each of the persons to whom a draft determination was sent under Subsection (2).

(6) The Commission may, of its own motion, determine to hold a conference in relation to the draft determination and shall appoint a date (not being a date later than 20 days after the expiration of the period referred to in Subsection (3)), time and place for the holding of the conference and give notice of the date, time and place so appointed to each of the persons to whom the draft determination was sent under Subsection (2).

(7) Where the Commission is of the opinion that two or more applications for authorizations that are made by the same person, or by corporations that are related to each other, involve the same or substantially similar issues, the Commission may treat the applications as if they constitute a single application, and may prepare a single draft determination in relation to the applications and hold a single conference in relation to that draft determination.

79. PROCEDURE AT CONFERENCE.

(1) At a conference called under Section 78 –

- (a) the Commission shall be represented by a member or members nominated by the Commissioner; and
- (b) each person to whom a draft determination was sent under Section 78(2) and any other person whose presence at the conference is considered by the Commission to be desirable, is entitled to attend and participate personally or, in the case of a body corporate, be represented by a person who, or by persons each of whom, is a director, officer or employee of the body corporate; and
- (c) a person participating in the conference in accordance with Paragraph (b) is entitled to have another person or other persons present to assist him; and
- (d) no other person is entitled to be present.

(2) The Commission may require any officer of the Commission to attend a conference called under Section 78 where, in the opinion of the Commission, that officer may assist the Commission in the determination of the application.

(3) At a conference called under Section 78, the Commission shall provide for as little formality and technicality as the requirements of this Part and a proper consideration of the application permit.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(4) The Commission shall cause such record of the conference to be made as is sufficient to set out the matters raised by the persons participating in the conference.

(5) Any member of the Commission attending the conference may terminate the conference when that member is of the opinion that a reasonable opportunity has been given for the expression of the views of persons participating in the conference.

(6) The Commission shall have regard to all matters raised at the conference, and may, at any time after the termination of the conference, make a determination in respect of the application.

80. COMMISSION MAY VARY OR REVOKE AUTHORIZATION.

(1) Subject to Subsection (2), if at any time after the Commission has granted an authorization under Section 70, the Commission is satisfied that –

- (a) the authorization was granted on information that was false or misleading in a material particular; or
- (b) there has been a material change of circumstances since the authorization was granted; or
- (c) a condition upon which the authorization was granted has not been complied with, the Commission may revoke or amend the authorization or revoke the authorization and grant a further authorization in substitution for it.

(2) The Commission shall not revoke or amend an authorization or an authorization and substitute a further authorization pursuant to Subsection (1) unless the person to whom the authorization was granted and any other person who in the opinion of the Commission is likely to have an interest in the matter is given a reasonable opportunity to make submissions to the Commission and the Commission has had regard to those submissions.

81. COMMISSION MAY GIVE CLEARANCES FOR BUSINESS ACQUISITIONS.

(1) A person who proposes to acquire assets of a business or shares may give the Commission a notice seeking clearance for the acquisition.

(2) Section 76(1), (2)(a) and (b), (4) and (5) apply in respect of every notice given under Subsection (1) as if the notice were an application under Section 70.

(3) Subject to Subsection (5), within 20 days after the date of registration of the notice, or such longer period as the Commission and the person who gave the notice agree, the Commission shall either –

- (a) if it is satisfied that the acquisition will not have, and will not be likely to have, the effect of substantially lessening competition in a market, by notice in writing to the person by or on whose behalf the notice was given, give a clearance for the acquisition; or
- (b) if it is not satisfied that the acquisition will not have, and will not be likely to have, the effect of substantially lessening competition in a market, by notice in writing to the person by or on whose behalf the notice was given, decline to give a clearance for the acquisition.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(4) If the period specified in Subsection (3), and any extension thereof in accordance with Subsection (5), expires without the Commission having given a clearance for the acquisition and without having given a notice under Subsection (3)(b), the Commission is deemed to have given a clearance for the acquisition.

(5) If the Commission requires a person who gives notice under this section to produce or furnish to the Commission documents and information in relation to the acquisition for the purpose of enabling it to exercise its functions under this section, the period specified in Subsection (3) is extended by the duration of the period commencing on the date the person is notified of that requirement and expiring on the date on which the relevant documents and information are produced and furnished to the Commission.

(6) A clearance given under Subsection (3) and a clearance deemed to be given under Subsection (4) expires 12 months after the date on which it was given.

82. COMMISSION MAY GRANT AUTHORIZATIONS FOR BUSINESS ACQUISITIONS.

(1) A person who proposes to acquire assets of a business or shares may give the Commission a notice seeking an authorization for the acquisition.

(2) Section 76(1), (2)(a) and (b), (4) and (5) apply in respect of every notice given under Subsection (1) as if the notice were an application under Section 70.

(3) Subject to Subsection (6), within 72 days after the date of registration of the notice, or such longer period as the Commission and the person who gave the notice agree, the Commission shall –

- (a) if it is satisfied that the acquisition will not have, and will not be likely to have, the effect of substantially lessening competition in a market, by notice in writing to the person by or on whose behalf the notice was given, give a clearance for the acquisition; or
- (b) if it is satisfied that the acquisition will result, or will be likely to result, in such a benefit to the public that it should be permitted, by notice in writing to the person by or on whose behalf the notice was given, grant an authorization for the acquisition; or
- (c) if it is not satisfied as to the matters referred to in Paragraphs (a) or (b), by notice in writing to the person by or on whose behalf the notice was given, decline to give a clearance or grant an authorization for the acquisition.

(4) If the period specified in Subsection (3), and any extension thereof in accordance with Subsection (6), expires without the Commission having given a clearance or having granted an authorization or having declined to do so, the Commission is deemed to have granted an authorization for the acquisition.

(5) The Commission shall state in writing its reasons for a determination made by it under Subsection (3).

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(6) If the Commission requires a person who gives notice under this section to produce or furnish to the Commission documents and information in relation to the acquisition for the purpose of enabling it to exercise its functions under this section, the period specified in Subsection (3) is extended by the duration of the period commencing on the date the person is notified of that requirement and expiring on the date on which the relevant documents and information are produced and furnished to the Commission.

(7) A clearance given or an authorization granted under Subsection (3) and an authorization deemed to be granted under Subsection (4) expires 12 months after the date on which it was given or granted.

83. PROVISIONS APPLYING TO APPLICATIONS FOR CLEARANCES AND AUTHORIZATIONS FOR BUSINESS ACQUISITIONS.

(1) A person who gives a notice under Section 81 or Section 82 shall from time to time produce or furnish to the Commission, within such time as the Commission may specify, such documents and information in relation to the acquisition as may be required by the Commission for the purpose of enabling it to exercise its functions under this section, Section 81 or Section 82.

(2) Notwithstanding Section 81 or Section 82, where the Commission is of the opinion that a proposed acquisition is, for reasons other than arising from the application of any provision of this Part, unlikely to be proceeded with, the Commission may, in its discretion, decline to give a clearance or grant an authorization for that acquisition.

(3) The Commission shall state in writing its reasons for declining to give a clearance or grant an authorization under Subsection (2).

(4) A person who has given a notice in respect of an acquisition under Section 81 or Section 82 may at any time, by notice in writing to the Commission, advise the Commission that he does not wish the Commission to give a clearance or grant an authorization and the Commission shall accordingly not give a clearance or grant an authorization in respect of that acquisition.

(5) The Commission may consult with any person who, in its opinion, is able to assist it in making a determination under Section 81 or Section 82, as the case may be.

84. EFFECT OF CLEARANCE OR AUTHORIZATION.

Nothing in Section 50 or Section 69 applies to the acquisition of assets of a business or shares if the assets or shares are acquired in accordance with a clearance or an authorization under this Division and while the clearance or authorization is in force.

85. COMMISSION MAY ACCEPT UNDERTAKINGS.

(1) In giving a clearance or granting an authorization under Section 81 or Section 82, the Commission may accept a written undertaking given by or on behalf of the person who gave a notice under Section 81(1) or Section 82(1), as the case may be, to dispose of assets or shares specified in the undertaking.

(2) The Commission shall not accept an undertaking in relation to the giving of a clearance or the granting of an authorization under Section 81 or Section 82, other than an undertaking given under Subsection (1).

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(3) An undertaking given to the Commission under Subsection (1) is deemed to form part of the clearance given or the authorization granted in relation to the acquisition to which the undertaking relates.

86. CONFERENCES IN RELATION TO BUSINESS ACQUISITIONS.

(1) Before making a determination under Section 81(3) or Section 82(3) in relation to an acquisition, the Commission may determine to hold a conference and shall appoint a date, time and place for the holding of the conference and give notice of the date, time and place so appointed and of the matters to be considered at the conference to the persons entitled to be present at the conference.

- (2) The provisions of Section 79 apply to a conference held under this section as if –
- (a) every reference in Section 79 to a conference called under Section 78 were a reference to a conference held under this Section; and
 - (b) the reference in Section 79(1)(b) to a person to whom a draft determination was sent under Section 78(2) were a reference to the person by or on whose behalf a notice was given under Section 81(1) or Section 82(1), as the case may be; and
 - (c) the reference in Subsection (6) of that section to a determination in respect of an application were a reference to a determination under Section 81(3) or Section 82(3), as the case may be.

Division 5. - Enforcement, Remedies and Appeals.

Subdivision A – Restrictive Trade Practices.

87. PECUNIARY PENALTIES.

(1) If the Court is satisfied on the application of the Commission that a person –

- (a) has contravened any of the provisions of Sections 50 to 67 inclusive; or
- (b) has attempted to contravene such a provision; or
- (c) has aided, abetted, counselled or procured any other person to contravene such a provision; or
- (d) has induced, or attempted to induce, any other person, whether by threats, promises or otherwise, to contravene such a provision; or
- (e) has been in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention by any other person of such a provision; or
- (f) has conspired with any other person to contravene such a provision, the Court may order the person to pay such pecuniary penalty as the Court determines to be appropriate.

(2) In determining an appropriate penalty under this section, the Court shall have regard to all relevant matters, including the nature and extent of any commercial gain arising from engaging in the conduct referred to in Subsection (1).

(3) The amount of any pecuniary penalty shall not, in respect of each act or omission, exceed –

- (a) in the case of an individual, K500,000.00; or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate, K10,000,000.00.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(4) The standard of proof in proceedings under this section is the standard of proof applying in civil proceedings.

(5) Proceedings under this section may only be commenced within three years after the occurrence of the matter giving rise to the contravention.

(6) Where conduct by any person constitutes a contravention of two or more provisions of Sections 50 to 67 (inclusive), proceedings may be instituted under this Part against that person in relation to the contravention of any one or more of the provisions, but a person shall not be liable to more than one pecuniary penalty under this section in respect of the same conduct.

88. BODY CORPORATE NOT TO INDEMNIFY CERTAIN PERSONS IN RESPECT OF PECUNIARY PENALTIES.

(1) A body corporate shall not indemnify a director, employee or agent of the body corporate or a related corporation in respect of –

- (a) liability for payment of a pecuniary penalty under Section 87 that arises out of a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding that is deemed, under Section 53, to have the purpose, or to have or to be likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in a market; or
- (b) costs incurred by that director, employee or agent in defending or settling any proceeding relating to that liability.

(2) An indemnity given in contravention of Subsection (1) is void.

(3) In this Section –

- “agent” includes a former agent; and
- “director” includes a former director; and
- “employee” includes a former employee; and
- “indemnify” includes relieve or excuse from liability, whether before or after the liability arises, and “indemnity” has a corresponding meaning.

89. PECUNIARY PENALTIES FOR CONTRAVENTION OF SECTION 88.

(1) If the Court is satisfied on the application of the Commission that a body corporate has acted in contravention of Section 88, the Court may order the body corporate to pay any pecuniary penalty that the Court determines to be appropriate.

(2) The amount of any pecuniary penalty shall not, in respect of each act or omission, exceed twice the value of any indemnity given in contravention of Section 88.

(3) The standard of proof in proceedings under this section is the standard of proof applying in civil proceedings.

(4) Proceedings under this section may only be commenced within three years after the occurrence of the matter giving rise to the contravention.

90. COURT MAY ORDER CERTAIN PERSONS TO BE EXCLUDED FROM MANAGEMENT OF BODY CORPORATE.

The Court may make an order that a person shall not, without the leave of the Court, be a director or promoter of, or in any way, either directly or indirectly, be concerned or take part in the management of, a body corporate for a period not exceeding five years as may be specified in the order, if the Court is satisfied on the application of the Commission that –

- (a) the person has entered into a contract or arrangement, or arrived at an understanding, containing a provision that is deemed by Section 53 to have the purpose, or to have or to be likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in a market; or
- (b) the person has given effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding that is deemed by Section 53 to have the purpose, or to have or to be likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in a market; or
- (c) the person has entered into a contract or arrangement, or arrived at an understanding, that contains an exclusionary provision; or
- (d) the person has given effect to an exclusionary provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding.

91. APPLICATION FOR ORDER UNDER SECTION 90.

(1) The Commission shall give not less than ten days notice of its intention to apply for an order under Section 90 to the person against whom the order is sought.

(2) On the hearing of the Commission's application or an application by a person against whom an order under Section 90 has been made –

- (a) the Commission shall appear and call the attention of the Court to any matter that seems to it to be relevant, and may give evidence or call witnesses; and
- (b) the person against whom the order is sought or has been made may appear and give evidence or call witnesses.

(3) An officer of the Court shall, as soon as practicable after the making of an order under Section 90 –

- (a) give notice of the order to the person against whom the order has been made; and
- (b) give notice in the National Gazette of the name of the person against whom the order is made.

92. OFFENCE TO ACT IN CONTRAVENTION OF ORDER MADE UNDER SECTION 90.

(1) A person who acts in contravention of an order made under Section 90 is guilty of an offence.

(2) A person, who commits an offence under Subsection (1), is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or a fine not exceeding K500,000.00.

93. INJUNCTIONS.

The Court may, on the application of the Commission or any other person, grant an injunction restraining a person from engaging in conduct that constitutes or would constitute any of the following:–

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (a) a contravention of any of the provisions of Sections 50 to 67 inclusive;
- (b) any attempt to contravene such a provision;
- (c) aiding, abetting, counseling or procuring any other person to contravene such a provision;
- (d) inducing, or attempting to induce, any other person, whether by threats, promises or otherwise, to contravene such a provision;
- (e) being in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention by any other person of such a provision;
- (f) conspiring with any other person to contravene such a provision.

94. ACTIONS FOR DAMAGES.

(1) A person is liable in damages for any loss or damage caused by that person engaging in conduct that constitutes any of the following :-

- (a) a contravention of any of the provisions of Sections 50 to 67;
- (b) aiding, abetting, counseling or procuring a contravention of such a provision;
- (c) inducing, by threats, promises or otherwise, a contravention of such a provision;
- (d) being in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, a contravention of such a provision;
- (e) conspiring with any other person in a contravention of such a provision.

(2) An action under Subsection (1) may only be commenced within three years after the occurrence of the matter giving rise to the contravention.

Subdivision B – Business Acquisitions.

95. PECUNIARY PENALTIES.

(1) If the Court is satisfied on the application of the Commission that a person –

- (a) has contravened Section 69; or
- (b) has attempted to contravene Section 69; or
- (c) has aided, abetted, counseled, or procured any other person to contravene Section 69; or
- (d) has induced, or attempted to induce, any other person, whether by threats, promises or otherwise, to contravene Section 69; or
- (e) has been in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention by any other person of Section 69; or
- (f) has conspired with any other person to contravene Section 69, the Court may order the person to pay to such pecuniary penalty as the Court determines to be appropriate.

(2) In determining an appropriate penalty under this section, the Court shall have regard to all relevant matters, including –

- (a) the nature and extent of the act or omission; and
- (b) the nature and extent of any loss or damage suffered by any person as a result of the act or omission; and
- (c) the circumstances in which the act or omission took place; and
- (d) whether or not the person has previously been found by the Court in proceedings under this Division to have engaged in any similar conduct.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(3) The amount of any pecuniary penalty shall not, in respect of each act or omission, exceed –

- (a) in the case of an individual, K500,000.00; or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate, K10,000,000.00.

(4) The standard of proof in proceedings under this section is the standard of proof applying in civil proceedings.

(5) Proceedings under this section may only be commenced within three years after the occurrence of the matter giving rise to the contravention.

(6) A person is not liable to a pecuniary penalty under both Section 87 and this section in respect of the same conduct.

96. INJUNCTIONS.

Where it appears to the Court, on the application of the Commission, that a person intends to engage, or is engaging, or has engaged, in conduct that constitutes or would constitute a contravention of Section 69, the Court may, by order, do all or any of the following things :-

- (a) grant an injunction restraining any person from engaging in conduct that constitutes or would constitute –
 - (i) a contravention of Section 69; or
 - (ii) an attempt to contravene Section 69; or
 - (iii) aiding, abetting, counseling or procuring any other person to contravene Section 69; or
 - (iv) inducing, or attempting to induce, any other person, whether by threats, promises or otherwise, to contravene Section 69; or
 - (v) being in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention by any other person of Section 69; or
 - (vi) conspiring with any other person to contravene Section 69;
- (b) impose on any person obligations to be observed in the carrying on of any business or the safeguarding of any business or any assets of any business;
- (c) provide for the carrying on of any business or the safeguarding of any business or assets of any business, either by the appointment of a person to conduct or supervise the conduct of any business (on such terms and with such powers as may be specified or described in the order), or in any other manner, as it thinks necessary in the circumstances of the case.

97. ACTIONS FOR DAMAGES.

(1) A person is liable in damages for any loss or damage caused by him engaging in conduct that constitutes any of the following:-

- (a) a contravention of Section 69; and
- (b) aiding, abetting, counseling or procuring a contravention of Section 69; and
- (c) inducing, by threats, promises or otherwise, a contravention of Section 69; and
- (d) being in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, a contravention of Section 69; and
- (e) conspiring with any other person in a contravention of Section 69.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(2) An action under Subsection (1) may only be commenced within three years after the occurrence of the matter giving rise to the contravention.

98. COURT MAY ORDER DIVESTITURE OF ASSETS OR SHARES.

(1) In any case where the Court, on the application of the Commission, is satisfied that any person –

- (a) has contravened Section 69; or
- (b) has been found in any other proceedings under this Division to have contravened Section 69,

it may, by order –

- (c) give directions for the disposal by that person of such assets or shares as are specified in the order; or
- (d) give directions for the disposal by that person of such assets or shares in accordance with an undertaking given by the person under Section 85.

(2) An application under Subsection (1) may only be made within two years after the occurrence of the matter giving rise to the contravention.

Subdivision C – Injunctions Generally.

99. GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO GRANTING OF INJUNCTIONS.

(1) The Court may at any time rescind or vary an injunction granted under this Division.

(2) Where an application is made to the Court under this Division for the grant of an injunction restraining a person from engaging in conduct of a particular kind, the Court may –

- (a) if it is satisfied that the person has engaged in conduct of that kind, grant an injunction restraining the person from engaging in conduct of that kind; or
- (b) if in the opinion of the Court it is desirable to do so, grant an interim injunction restraining the person from engaging in conduct of that kind,

whether or not it appears to the Court that the person intends to engage again, or to continue to engage, in conduct of that kind.

(3) Where an application is made to the Court under this Division for the grant of an injunction restraining a person from engaging in conduct of a particular kind, the Court may –

- (a) if it appears to the Court that, in the event that an injunction is not granted, it is likely that the person will engage in conduct of that kind – grant an injunction restraining the person from engaging in conduct of that kind; or
- (b) if in the opinion of the Court it is desirable to do so – grant an interim injunction restraining the person from engaging in conduct of that kind,

whether or not the person has previously engaged in conduct of that kind and whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any person if the first-mentioned person engages in conduct of that kind.

(4) In determining whether to grant an interim injunction under this section, the Court shall have regard to all relevant matters, including the interests of consumers.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

100. WHEN UNDERTAKING AS TO DAMAGES NOT REQUIRED BY COMMISSION.

(1) If the Commission applies to the Court for the grant of an interim injunction under this Division, the Court shall not, as a condition of granting an interim injunction, require the Commission to give an undertaking as to damages.

(2) In determining the Commission's application for the grant of an interim injunction, the Court shall not take into account that the Commission is not required to give an undertaking as to damages.

Subdivision D – Other Matters.

101. OTHER ORDERS.

(1) Where, in any proceedings under this Division, the Court finds that a person who is a party to the proceedings has suffered, or is likely to suffer, loss or damage by conduct of another person that was engaged in contravention of any of the provisions of Sections 50 to 67 inclusive, the Court may, whether or not it grants an injunction or makes any other order under this Division, make such order or orders as it thinks appropriate against the person who engaged in the conduct or any other person who in relation to the contravention did any act referred to in Section 87(1)(b) to (f) inclusive.

(2) Where a contract is entered into in contravention of this Part, or a contract contains a provision which if given effect to would contravene this Part, the Court may, in any proceedings under this Division, or on application made for the purpose by a party to the contract or any person claiming through or under any party to the contract, make an order –

- (a) varying the contract, in such manner as it thinks fit, not being a manner inconsistent with the provisions of this Part; or
- (b) cancelling the contract; or
- (c) requiring any person who is a party to the contract to make restitution or pay compensation to any other person who is a party to the contract.

(3) Where a covenant is given in contravention of this Part, or the enforcement of the terms of a covenant would contravene this Part, the Court may, in any proceedings under this Division, or on application made for the purpose by a person who, but for Section 51(4), would be bound by or entitled to the benefit of the covenant or any person claiming through or under any such person, make an order –

- (a) varying the covenant, in such manner as it thinks fit, not being a manner inconsistent with the provisions of this Part; or
- (b) requiring any person who, but for Section 51(4), would be bound by or entitled to the benefit of the covenant, to make restitution or pay compensation to any other person who, but for Section 51(4), would be bound by or entitled to the benefit of the covenant.

(4) Nothing in Subsection (2) or Subsection (3) prevents any proceedings being instituted or commenced under this Division.

(5) Notwithstanding any enactment or rule of law, where a contract is entered into in contravention of this Part by reason that the contract contains a particular provision, or the contract contains a provision which, if given effect to, would contravene this Part, the enforceability of any other provision of the contract is not affected by the existence of that provision.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

102. CONDUCT BY EMPLOYEES OR AGENTS.

(1) Where, in proceedings under this Division in respect of any conduct engaged in by a body corporate, being conduct in relation to which any of the provisions of this Part applies, it is necessary to establish the state of mind of the body corporate, it is sufficient to show that a director, employee or agent of the body corporate, acting within the scope of his actual or apparent authority, had that state of mind.

(2) Any conduct engaged in on behalf of a body corporate –

(a) by a director, employee or agent of the body corporate, acting within the scope of his actual or apparent authority; or

(b) by any other person at the direction or with the consent or agreement (whether express or implied) of a director, employee or agent of the body corporate, given within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of the director, employee or agent, is deemed, for the purposes of this Part, to have been engaged in also by the body corporate.

(3) Where, in a proceedings under this Division in respect of any conduct engaged in by a person other than a body corporate, being conduct in relation to which a provision of this Part applies, it is necessary to establish the state of mind of the person, it is sufficient to show that an employee or agent of the person, acting within the scope of his actual or apparent authority, had that state of mind.

(4) Any conduct engaged in on behalf of a person other than a body corporate –

(a) by an employee or agent of the person acting within the scope of his actual or apparent authority; or

(b) by any other person at the direction or with the consent or agreement (whether express or implied) of an employee or agent of the first-mentioned person, given within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of the servant or agent, is deemed, for the purposes of this Part, to have been engaged in also by the first-mentioned person.

(5) A reference in this section to the state of mind of a person includes a reference to the knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose of the person and the person's reasons for that intention, opinion, belief or purpose.

PART VII. - CONSUMER PROTECTION.

Division 1. - Interpretation.

103. INTERPRETATION.

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears –

Division 2. - Declaration of Policy and Rights.

104. DECLARATION OF STATE CONSUMER POLICY.

It is the policy of the State to protect the rights and interests of consumers and to monitor standards for the ethical conduct of those engaged in the production and distribution of goods and services.

105. CONSUMER'S RIGHTS.

(1) The State recognizes that consumers, in their capacity as consumers, have the following rights :-

- (a) right to safety;
- (b) right to choice;
- (b) right to consumer education;
- (d) right to information;
- (e) right to representation;
- (f) right to redress.

(2) The recognition of the rights under Subsection (1) does not confer or imply any liability on the State in respect of these rights or the enforcement of these rights.

Division 3. - Consumer Affairs Functions.

106. CONSUMER AFFAIRS FUNCTIONS OF THE COMMISSION.

In addition to the functions specified in Section 6 of this Act, the Commission has the following functions :-

- (a) to formulate and submit to the Minister policies in the interests of consumers;
- (b) to consider and examine and, where necessary, advise the Minister on the consolidation or updating of legislation providing protection to the consumer in the following areas:-
 - (i) public health;
 - (ii) trade and commerce;
 - (iii) motor vehicles and motor vehicle insurance;
 - (iv) price surveillance and control;
 - (v) services;
 - (vi) such other areas as may be relevant;
- (c) to liaise with Departments and other agencies of Government on matters relating to consumer protection legislation; and

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (d) to receive and consider complaints from consumers on matters relating to the supply of goods and services;
- (e) to investigate any complaint received under Paragraph (d) or, where appropriate, refer the complaint to the appropriate authority and ensure that action is taken by the Commission or by the authority to whom the complaint was referred;
- (f) to make available to consumers general information affecting the interests of consumers;
- (g) to liaise with business, commercial and professional bodies and associations in order to establish codes of practice to regulate the activities of their members in their dealings with consumers;
- (h) to advise consumers of their rights and responsibilities under laws relating to consumer protection;
- (i) to promote and participate in consumer education activities; and
- (j) to research into issues affecting consumers and propose appropriate measures to address such issues;
- (k) to encourage the development of organizations and associations established for the purpose of furthering the interests of consumers, and to liaise and consult with them on the development of consumer policy and on issues of consumer interest;
- (l) to establish appropriate systems whereby consumer claims can be considered and redressed;
- (m) to liaise with consumer organizations, consumer affairs authorities and consumer protection groups overseas and to exchange information on consumer issues with those bodies;
- (n) to arrange for the representation of consumers in court proceedings relating to consumer matters;
- (o) to do all other things relating to consumer affairs.

Division 4. - Product Safety and Product Information.

107. WARNING NOTICE TO PUBLIC.

- (1) The Commission may, by notice in the National Gazette, issue –
 - (a) a statement that goods of a kind specified in the notice are under investigation to determine whether the goods will or may cause injury to any person; or
 - (b) a warning of possible risks involved in the use of goods of a kind specified in the notice.
- (2) Where –
 - (a) an investigation referred to in Subsection (1) has been completed; and
 - (b) neither a notice under Section 114 inviting a supplier to notify the Commission whether the supplier wishes the Commission to hold a conference nor a notice under Section 116 has been published in relation to the goods since the commencement of the investigation, the Commission shall, as soon as practicable after the investigation has been completed, by notice in the National Gazette, announce the results of the investigation, and may announce in the notice whether, and if so, what action is proposed to be taken in relation to the goods under this Division.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

108. PRODUCT SAFETY STANDARDS AND UNSAFE GOODS.

(1) A person shall not supply goods that are intended to be used, or are of a kind likely to be used, by a consumer if the goods are of a kind –

- (a) in respect of which there is a prescribed consumer product safety standard and which do not comply with that standard; or
- (b) in respect of which there is in force a notice under this section declaring the goods to be unsafe goods; or
- (c) in respect of which there is in force a notice under this section imposing a permanent ban on the goods.

(2) The regulations may, in respect of goods of a particular kind, prescribe a consumer product safety standard consisting of such requirements as to –

- (a) performance, composition, contents, methods of manufacture or processing, design, construction, finish or packaging of the goods; and
- (b) testing of the goods during, or after the completion of, manufacture or processing; and
- (c) the form and content of markings, warnings or instructions to accompany the goods, as are reasonably necessary to prevent or reduce risk of injury to any person.

(3) A person shall not export goods the supply in Papua New Guinea of which is prohibited by Subsection (1) unless the Minister has, by notice in writing given to the person, approved the export of those goods.

(4) Where the Minister approves the export of goods under Subsection (3), the Minister shall cause the statement to be tabled in Parliament within seven sitting days after the approval is given.

(5) Subject to Section 114, where it appears to the Commission that goods of a particular kind will or may cause injury to any person, the Commission may, by notice in the National Gazette, declare the goods to be unsafe goods.

(6) A notice under Subsection (5) remains in force until the end of 18 months after the date of publication of the notice in the National Gazette, unless it is revoked by notice in the National Gazette before the end of that period.

(7) Subject to Section 114, where –

- (a) a period of 18 months has elapsed after the date of publication of a notice in the National Gazette declaring goods to be unsafe goods; and
- (b) there is not a prescribed consumer product safety standard in respect of the goods, the Commission may, by notice in the Gazette, impose a permanent ban on the goods.

109. PRODUCT INFORMATION STANDARDS.

(1) A person shall not supply goods that are intended to be used, or are of a kind likely to be used, by a consumer, being goods of a kind in respect of which a consumer product information standard has been prescribed, unless the person has complied with that standard in relation to those goods.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(2) The regulations may, in respect of goods of a particular kind, prescribe a consumer product information standard consisting of such requirements as to –

- (a) the disclosure of information relating to the performance, composition, contents, methods of manufacture or processing, design, construction, finish or packaging of the goods; and
- (b) the form and manner in which that information is to be disclosed on or with the goods, as are reasonably necessary to give persons using the goods information as to the quantity, quality, nature or value of the goods.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to goods that are intended to be used outside Papua New Guinea.

(4) If there is applied to goods –

- (a) a statement that the goods are for export only; or
- (b) a statement indicating by the use of words authorized by the regulations to be used for the purposes of this subsection that the goods are intended to be used outside Papua New Guinea, it shall be presumed for the purposes of this section, unless the contrary is established, that the goods are intended to be so used.

(5) For the purposes of Subsection (4), a statement shall be deemed to be applied to goods if –

- (a) the statement is woven in, impressed on, worked into or annexed or affixed to the goods; or
- (b) the statement is applied to a covering, label, reel or thing in or with which the goods are supplied.

(6) A reference in Subsection (5) to a covering includes a reference to a stopper, glass, bottle, vessel, box, capsule, case, frame or wrapper and a reference in that subsection to a label includes a reference to a band or ticket.

110. POWER OF MINISTER TO DECLARE PRODUCT SAFETY OR INFORMATION STANDARDS.

(1) The Minister may, after consulting with the Commission, by notice in the National Gazette, declare that, in respect of goods of a kind specified in the notice, a particular standard, or a particular part of a standard, prepared or approved by the National Institute of Standards and Industrial Technology or by a prescribed association or body, or such a standard or part of a standard with additions or variations specified in the notice, is a consumer product safety standard for the purposes of Section 108 or a consumer product information standard for the purposes of Section 109.

(2) Where a notice is published in accordance with Subsection (1), the standard, or the part of the standard, referred to in the notice, or the standard or part of a standard so referred to with additions or variations specified in the notice, as the case may be, will be deemed to be a prescribed consumer product safety standard for the purposes of Section 108 or a prescribed consumer product information standard for the purposes of Section 109, as the case may be.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(3) Subsection (1) does not authorize the publication of a notice in relation to goods of a particular kind if the standard or the part of the standard referred to in the notice, or the standard or the part of the standard so referred to with additions and variations specified in the notice, is inconsistent with a standard prescribed in relation to goods of that kind by regulations made for the purposes of Section 108 or Section 109.

111. COMPULSORY PRODUCT RECALL.

(1) Subject to Section 114, where –

- (a) a person (in this section referred to as "the supplier") supplies goods that are intended to be used, or are of a kind likely to be used, by a consumer; and
- (b) one of the following subparagraphs applies :–
 - (i) it appears to the Commission that the goods are of a kind which will or may cause injury to any person;
 - (ii) the goods are goods of a kind in respect of which there is a prescribed consumer product safety standard and the goods do not comply with that standard;
 - (iii) the goods are goods of a kind in relation to which there is in force a notice under Section 108(5) or Section 108(7); and
- (c) it appears to the Commission that the supplier has not taken satisfactory action to prevent the goods causing injury to any person, the Commission may, by notice in the National Gazette, require the supplier to do one or more of the following:–

- (d) take action within the period specified in the notice to recall the goods;
- (e) disclose to the public, or to a class of persons specified in the notice, in the manner and within the period specified in the notice, one or more of the following :–
 - (i) the nature of a defect in, or a dangerous characteristic of, the goods identified in the notice;
 - (ii) the circumstances, being circumstances identified in the notice, in which the use of the goods is dangerous;
 - (iii) procedures of disposing of the goods specified in the notice;
- (f) subject to Subsection (2), inform the public, or a class of persons specified in the notice, in the manner and within the period specified in the notice, that the supplier undertakes to do whichever of the following the supplier thinks is appropriate :–
 - (i) except where the notice identifies a dangerous characteristic of the goods – repair the goods;
 - (ii) replace the goods;
 - (iii) refund to a person to whom the goods were supplied (whether by the supplier or by another person) the price of the goods within the period specified in the notice.

(2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(f)(iii), where the Commission, in a notice under Subsection (1), requires the supplier to take action under Subsection (1)(f), the Commission may specify in the notice that, where –

- (a) the supplier chooses to refund the price of the goods; and

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (b) a period of more than 12 months has elapsed since a person (whether or not the person to whom the refund is to be made) acquired the goods from the supplier,
- the amount of a refund may be reduced by the supplier by an amount attributable to the use which a person has had of the goods, being an amount calculated in a manner specified in the notice.
- (3) The Commission may, by notice in the National Gazette, give directions as to the manner in which the supplier is to carry out a recall of goods required under Subsection (1).
- (4) Where the supplier, under Subsection (1), undertakes to repair goods, the supplier shall cause the goods to be repaired so that –
- (a) any defect in the goods identified in the notice under Subsection (1) is remedied; and
 - (b) if there is a prescribed consumer product safety standard in respect of the goods, the goods comply with that standard.
- (5) Where the supplier, under Subsection (1), undertakes to replace goods, the supplier shall replace the goods with like goods which –
- (a) if a defect in, or a dangerous characteristic of, the first-mentioned goods was identified in the notice under Subsection (1) – do not contain that defect or have that characteristic; and
 - (b) if there is a prescribed consumer product safety standard in respect of goods of that kind – comply with that standard.
- (6) Where the supplier, under Subsection (1), undertakes to repair goods or replace goods, the cost of the repair or replacement, including any necessary transportation costs, shall be borne by the supplier.
- (7) Where goods are recalled, whether voluntarily or in accordance with a requirement made by the Commission under Subsection (1)(d), a person who has supplied or supplies any of the recalled goods to another person outside Papua New Guinea shall, as soon as practicable after the supply of those goods, give a notice in writing to that other person –
- (a) stating that the goods are subject to recall; and
 - (b) if the goods contain a defect or have a dangerous characteristic – setting out the nature of that defect or characteristic; and
 - (c) if the goods do not comply with a prescribed consumer product safety standard in respect of the goods – setting out the nature of the non-compliance.
- (8) Where a person is required under Subsection (7) to give a notice in writing to another person, the first-mentioned person shall, within 10 days after giving that notice, provide the Commission with a copy of that notice.
- (9) A person who contravenes Subsection (8) is guilty of an offence.
- (10) For the purposes of this section, things that are goods at the time they are supplied are taken to be goods at all times after the supply, even if they become fixtures.
- (11) Subsection (9) is an offence of strict liability.

112 COMPLIANCE WITH PRODUCT RECALL ORDER.

Where a notice under Section 111(1) is in force in relation to a person, the person shall comply with the requirements and directions in the notice.

113. NO SUPPLY IF PRODUCT RECALL ORDER ISSUED.

Where a notice under Section 111(1) is in force in relation to a person, the person shall not –

- (a) where the notice identifies a defect in, or a dangerous characteristic of, the goods – supply goods of the kind to which the notice relates which contain that defect or have that characteristic; or
- (b) in any other case – supply goods of the kind to which the notice relates.

114. OPPORTUNITY FOR CONFERENCE TO BE AFFORDED BEFORE CERTAIN POWERS EXERCISED.

(1) Subject to Section 116, where the Commission proposes to publish a notice under Section 108(5), Section 108(7) or Section 111(1) in relation to goods of a particular kind, the Commission shall prepare–

- (a) a draft of the notice proposed to be published; and
- (b) a summary of the reasons for the proposed publication of the notice, and shall, by notice in the National Gazette, invite any person (in this section referred to as "a supplier") who supplied or proposed to supply goods of that kind to notify the Commission, within the period (in this section referred to as "the relevant period") of 10 days of publication of the last-mentioned notice in the National Gazette, whether the supplier wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the proposed publication of the first-mentioned notice.

(2) A notice published under Subsection (1) shall set out a copy of the draft notice under Section 108(5), Section 108(7) or Section 111(1) and a copy of the summary of the reasons for the proposed publication of the notice.

(3) If a supplier notifies the Commission in writing within the relevant period or within such longer period as the Commission allows that the supplier wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the proposed publication of a notice under Section 108(5), Section 108(7) or Section 111(1), the Commission shall appoint a day (being not later than 14 days after the end of that period), time and place for the holding of the conference, and give notice of the day, time and place so appointed to the Minister and to each supplier who so notified the Commission.

- (4) At a conference under this section –
 - (a) the Commission shall be represented by a member or members or employee or employees nominated by the Commissioner; and
 - (b) each supplier who notified the Commission in accordance with Subsection (3) is entitled to be present or to be represented; and
 - (c) any other person whose presence at the conference is considered by the Commission to be appropriate is entitled to be present or to be represented; and
 - (d) the Minister or a person or persons nominated in writing by the Minister is or are entitled to be present; and
 - (e) the procedure to be followed shall be as determined by the Commission.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(5) The Commission shall cause a record of proceedings at a conference under this section to be kept.

(6) The Commission shall, as far as is practicable, ensure that each person who, in accordance with Subsection (4), is entitled to be present or who is representing such a person at a conference is given a reasonable opportunity at the conference to present his case and, in particular, to inspect any documents which the Commission proposes to consider for the purpose of making a decision after the conclusion of the conference, other than any document that contains particulars of a secret formula or process, and to make submissions in relation to those documents.

115. DECISION AFTER CONCLUSION OF CONFERENCE.

As soon as is practicable after the conclusion of a conference in relation to the proposed publication of a notice under Section 108(5), Section 108(7) or Section 111(1), the Commission shall –

- (a) decide, by resolution in writing –
 - (i) to publish the first-mentioned notice in the same terms as the draft notice referred to in Section 114(1); or
 - (ii) to publish the first-mentioned notice with such modifications as are specified by the Commission; or
 - (iii) not to publish the first-mentioned notice; and
- (b) cause a copy of the resolution in writing to be given to each supplier who was present or represented at the conference.

116. EXCEPTION IN CASE OF DANGER TO PUBLIC.

(1) Where it appears to the Commission that goods of a particular kind create an imminent risk of death, serious illness or serious injury, the Commission may, by notice in the National Gazette, certify that a notice in relation to the goods under Section 108(5), Section 108(7) or Section 111(1), should be published without delay.

(2) Where the Commission publishes a notice in the National Gazette under Subsection (1) –

- (a) in a case where the notice is published before the Commission takes any action under Section 114(1) in relation to goods of a particular kind – Section 114 does not apply in relation to the action that the Commission may take under Section 108(5) or Section 111(1) in relation to goods of that kind; or
- (b) in any other case – any action taken by the Commission under Section 114(1) in relation to goods of a particular kind ceases to have effect and, if a conference had, under Section 114, been arranged or such a conference had commenced or been completed without the Commission making a decision under Section 115, the Commission may publish the notice under Section 108(5) or Section 111(1) without regard to the action taken under Section 114(1).

117. CONFERENCE AFTER GOODS BANNED.

(1) Where –

- (a) a notice has been published under Section 108(5) in relation to goods of a particular kind; and

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (b) the Commission publishes a notice under Section 116 in relation to goods of that kind,

the Commission shall, by notice in the National Gazette, invite any person (in this section referred to as "a supplier") who supplied or proposes to supply goods of that kind to notify the Commission within the period (in this section referred to as "the relevant period") of 10 days of publication of that notice in the National Gazette, to notify the Commission whether the supplier wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the notice referred to in Paragraph (a).

(2) If a supplier notifies the Commission in writing within the relevant period, or within such longer period as the Commission allows, that the supplier wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the notice under Section 108(5), the Commission shall appoint a day (being not later than 10 days after the end of that period), time and place for the holding of the conference and give notice of the day, time and place so appointed to the Minister and to each supplier who so notified the Commission.

(3) Section 114(4), Section 114(5) and Section 114(6) apply in relation to a conference held under this section.

118. DECISION AFTER CONCLUSION OF CONFERENCE.

As soon as is practicable after the conclusion of a conference in relation to a notice that has been published under Section 108(5), the Commission shall –

- (a) decide that the notice under Section 108(5) shall–
- (i) remain in force; or
 - (ii) be varied; or
 - (iii) be revoked; and
- (b) cause a copy of the notice in writing given to each supplier who was present or represented at the conference.

119. NOTIFICATION OF VOLUNTARY RECALL.

(1) Where a person voluntarily takes action to recall goods because the goods will or may cause injury to any person, the person shall, within two days after taking that action, give a notice in writing to the Commission –

- (a) stating that the goods are subject to recall; and
- (b) setting out the nature of the defect in, or dangerous characteristic of, the goods.

(2) A person who contravenes Subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

(3) For the purposes of this section, goods includes things that were goods at the time they were supplied but became fixtures after the supply.

(4) Subsection (2) is an offence of strict liability.

120. COPIES OF CERTAIN NOTICES TO BE GIVEN TO SUPPLIERS OR PUBLISHED IN CERTAIN NEWSPAPERS.

(1) Where the Commission publishes a notice in the National Gazette under Section 107(1), Section 114(1), Section 116(1) or Section 117(1), the Commission shall, within two days after the publication of that notice in the National Gazette or, if it is not practicable to do so within that period, as soon as practicable after the end of that period either –

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (a) cause a copy of the notice to be given to each person who, to the knowledge of the Commission, supplies goods of the kind to which the notice relates; or
- (b) cause a copy of the notice to be published in a newspaper circulating in each part of Papua New Guinea where goods of the kind to which the notice relates are, to the knowledge of the Commission, supplied.

(2) Any failure to comply with Subsection (1) in relation to a notice does not invalidate the notice.

121. CERTAIN ACTION NOT TO AFFECT INSURANCE CONTRACTS.

The liability of an insurer under a contract of insurance with a person, being a contract relating to the recall of goods supplied or proposed to be supplied by the person or to the liability of the person with respect to possible defects in goods supplied or proposed to be supplied by the person, shall not be affected by reason only that the person gives to the Minister, to the Commission or to an officer of the Commission information relating to any goods supplied or proposed to be supplied by the corporation.

PART VIII. – INQUIRIES AND REPORTS.

122. INQUIRY BY COMMISSION.

The Commission may conduct an inquiry if the Commission considers an inquiry is necessary or desirable for the purpose of carrying out the Commission's functions.

123. MINISTER OR PARLIAMENT MAY REFER MATTER FOR INQUIRY.

(1) The Commission shall conduct an inquiry into any matter that the Minister or Parliament, by written notice, refers to the Commission.

(2) The notice under Subsection (1) shall specify the terms of reference for the inquiry.

(3) The Minister or Parliament may –

- (a) require that a report on the inquiry be delivered to the Minister within a specified period; and
- (b) require the Commission to make a draft report publicly available or available to specified persons or bodies during the inquiry; and
- (c) require the Commission to consider specified matters; and
- (d) give the Commission specific directions in respect of the conduct of the inquiry.

(4) The Minister or Parliament may, by written notice, vary the terms of reference or a requirement or direction given by it under Subsection (3).

124. NOTICE OF INQUIRY.

(1) The Commission shall publish notice of an inquiry in a newspaper circulating generally in the country.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

- (2) A notice under Subsection (1) shall specify –
 - (a) the purpose of the inquiry; and
 - (b) the period during which the inquiry is to be held; and
 - (c) the period within which, and the form in which members of the public may make submissions, including details of public hearings; and
 - (d) the matters that the Commission would like submissions to deal with.

(3) If the inquiry relates to a matter referred to the Commission by the Minister or Parliament, the notice shall include the terms of reference and any requirements or directions of the Minister or Parliament relating to the inquiry.

(4) The Commission shall publish a further notice if the Minister or Parliament varies the terms of reference or any requirement or direction relating to the inquiry.

125. CONDUCT OF INQUIRY.

(1) Subject to any requirement or direction of the Minister or Parliament under this Part, an inquiry –

- (a) may be conducted in such manner as the Commission considers appropriate; and
- (b) may (but need not) involve public hearings.

(2) The Commission is not, in the conduct of an inquiry, bound by the rules of evidence.

126. REPORTS.

(1) The Commission shall deliver a copy of the Commission's final report on an inquiry to the Minister.

(2) The Commission may, during the course of an inquiry, deliver a special report to the Minister on any matter that the Commission considers should be the subject of such a report.

(3) The Commission shall identify in a report any information contained in the report that the Commission considers is confidential information.

(4) The Minister shall cause a copy of a report (excluding any information identified under Subsection (3) as confidential information) to be tabled in Parliament within 12 sitting days after receipt of the report.

(5) The Minister shall, after a report has been tabled in Parliament or, if Parliament is not sitting, within 28 days after receiving a report, ensure that copies of the report (excluding any information identified under Subsection (3) as confidential information), are available for public inspection.

(6) After the Minister has made a report publicly available, the Commission shall ensure that copies (excluding any information identified under Subsection (3) as confidential information) are available for purchase by members of the public.

(7) If information is excluded from a report as being confidential information, a note to that effect shall be included in the report at the place in the report from which the information is excluded.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

PART IX. - GENERAL POWERS OF COMMISSION, ETC.

Division 1. - Information Gathering.

127. SUMMONING WITNESSES, ETC.,

(1) The Commission or an officer authorized in writing by the Commission for the purpose may –

- (a) summon witnesses; and
- (b) take evidence on oath; and
- (c) require the production of documents, books and papers,

where the Commission reasonably believes it is necessary or desirable to do so for or in connection with the performance of the Commission's functions.

(2) Witnesses summoned under Subsection (1) may be paid such fees and allowances as are fixed by the Minister or as are prescribed.

(3) A person who, having been summoned as a witness under Subsection (1), fails, without lawful excuse, to appear in obedience to the summons is guilty of an offence.

(4) A witness before the Commission or an officer authorized in writing by the Commission, whether summoned to appear or not, who, without lawful excuse, refuses –

- (a) to be sworn or to make an affirmation; or
- (b) to produce documents, books and papers; or
- (c) to answer questions that he or she is lawfully required to answer, is guilty of an offence.

128. OBTAINING INFORMATION GENERALLY.

(1) The Commission or an officer authorized in writing for the purposes by the Commission may require a person –

- (a) to furnish such information as the Commission or authorized officer, as the case may be, requires; or
- (b) to answer any question put to him, where the Commission reasonably believes the information or answer will assist in connection with the performance of the Commission's functions.

(2) The Commission or an officer authorized in writing for the purpose by the Commission may require the information to be given, or the question to be answered, on oath, and orally or in writing, and for that purpose may administer an oath.

(3) The Commission or an officer authorized in writing for the purpose by the Commission may, by written notice, require the information to be given, or the question to be answered, in writing and at the place specified in the notice.

(4) A person who, when required under this section to furnish information or answer a question –

- (a) refuses or fails to furnish the information or to answer the question; or
- (b) gives information or makes an answer that is false in any particular,

is guilty of an offence.

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

(5) A person is not obliged to answer orally any question unless he or she has first been informed by the Commission or an officer authorized in writing for the purpose by the Commission asking the question that he or she is required to answer by virtue of this section.

129. ENTRY AND SEARCH.

(1) An officer of the Commission authorized in writing for the purpose by the Commission may, under warrant issued under Subsection (2) –

- (a) enter and search any premises; and
- (b) inspect any documents, books and papers; and
- (c) inspect and take samples of any stocks of any goods,

where the Commission reasonably believes it is necessary or desirable to do so for or in connection with the performance of the Commission's functions.

(2) Where an information on oath is laid before a Magistrate alleging that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there may be on or in any premises particular documents, books, papers or goods that may be necessary or desirable for the Commission to obtain for or in connection with the performance of its functions and the information sets out those grounds, the Magistrate may issue a search warrant authorizing the officer of the Commission named in the warrant, with such assistance, and by such force, as are necessary and reasonable, to enter the premises and exercise the powers referred to in Subsection (1) in respect of the thing.

(3) A Magistrate may not issue a warrant under Subsection (2) unless –

- (a) the informant or some other person has given to the Magistrate, either orally or by affidavit, such further information (if any) as the Magistrate requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought; and
- (b) the Magistrate is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for issuing the warrant.

(4) There shall be stated in a warrant issued under Subsection (2) –

- (a) the purpose for which the warrant is issued, and the nature of the matter in relation to which the entry, search and seizure are authorized; and
- (b) whether entry is authorized to be made at any time of the day or night or during specified hours of the day or night; and
- (c) a description of the kind of things to be inspected or impounded; and
- (d) a day, not being later than one week after the day of issue of the warrant, upon which the warrant ceases to have effect.

(5) The Commission or an officer authorized in writing for the purpose by the Commission may –

- (a) impound or retain any documents, books or papers produced to, or inspected by, the Commission or the authorized officer, as the case may be, under Subsection (1); and
- (b) make copies or abstracts of them, or of entries in them, but the person entitled to them is entitled within a reasonable time, to a copy certified as correct by the Commission.

"(2) At any time after a reviewable order is made, the Minister or a supplier of the declared goods or services concerned may apply to the Commission for the order to be reviewed.

"(3) An application under Subsection (2) shall state, with reasons, the variation that the applicant proposes should be made to the reviewable order, including the proposed new maximum price.

"(4) Prior to the expiration of 12 months from the later of the date on which a reviewable order took effect and the date on which the outcome of the last review of the reviewable order was published under Section 25C(3), the Commission may, in its discretion, following an application under Subsection (2)–

- (a) decide to conduct a review of that order; or
- (b) decide not to conduct a review of that order.

"(5) On or after the expiration of 12 months from the later of the date on which a reviewable order took effect and the date on which the outcome of the last review of the reviewable order was published under Section 25C(3), the Commission shall, following an application under Subsection (2), conduct a review of that order in accordance with Section 25B.

"(6) The Commission may at any time, on its own motion, decide to conduct a review of a reviewable order.

"(7) If the Commission has received more than one application under Subsection (2) in respect of the same reviewable order, the Commission may treat the applications as a single application and such application shall be deemed for the purposes of Section 25C(1) to have been received by the Commission on the date that the Commission received the first application."

Independent Consumer and Competition Commission

"25B. REVIEW OF PRICE CONTROL ORDER.

(1) If the Commission has decided, or been required by Section 25A(5), to conduct a review of a reviewable order, the Commission shall publish a notice in a daily newspaper generally circulating in Papua New Guinea –

- (a) specifying in reasonable detail the order to which the notice relates; and
- (b) specifying that the Commission intends to conduct a review of that order generally or in respect of particular matters, in the later case specifying in reasonable detail those matters; and
- (c) inviting interested persons to make submissions to the Commission with respect to the review of the order, within the period and in the manner specified in the notice.

"(2) When conducting a review of a reviewable order, the Commission shall consider any submissions received from interested persons with respect to the review of that order.

"25C. REVIEW PERIOD.

(1) In this section, "review period", in respect of a reviewable order, means the period of 90 days immediately following the date on which the Commission received an application under Section 25A(2), as extended from time to time by the Commission in accordance with Subsection (2).

"(2) The Commission may, from time to time, by notice published in the National Gazette prior to the expiration of the review period, extend the review period for a further period of 30 days from the date on which the review period would otherwise have expired.

"(3) If the Commission has decided, or been required by Section 25A(5), to conduct a review of a reviewable order, the Commission shall, prior to the expiration of the review period, by notice in the National Gazette, determine that the order should –

- (a) continue to operate in its present form; or
- (b) be varied; or
- (c) be terminated.

"(4) An order made under this section takes effect on the date specified in the order or, if no date is specified, on the date of publication of the notice in the National Gazette.

"(5) If, on the expiration of the review period, the Commission has failed to make a decision required by Subsection (3), the reviewable order shall be varied in the manner proposed by the applicant and the new maximum price shall be as proposed by the applicant or, if there is more than one applicant, the maximum price proposed by the first applicant."
